PREFACE

This sixtieth Annual Report on the Texas Judicial System presents the court activity of the more than 2,500 state, county, and municipal courts in the State of Texas. It is intended to inform the general public, and the legislative and executive branches of state government, of the accomplishments of the judicial branch during the period of September 1, 1987 through August 31, 1988. This report was prepared by the staff of the state Office of Court Administration and is submitted under the auspices of the Texas Judicial Council, pursuant to the statutory duty of the Council:

> The council continuously shall study the organization, rules, procedures and practice, work accomplished, results, and uniformity of the discretionary powers of the state courts and methods for their improvement.
> (Section 71.031, Tex. Gov't Code)

This report includes information on the basic structure and organization of the Texas Judiciary; detailed reports, summaries and analyses of the activities of the various levels of courts comprising the judicial system; reports on the activities of judicial agencies as required by law; and directories of judges and clerks.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Acknowledgement and appreciation is extended to the many judges and clerks of the courts who have so promptly submitted the monthly reports on court operations. Without their efforts, this report would not be possible and the citizens of the State would be deprived of necessary information on the activities of the Judicial Branch of Government. We particularly wish to recognize the interest and support of the Presiding Judges of the nine Administrative Judicial Regions and Administrative Assistants in this regard on a statewide basis.

Special acknowledgement is due to Court of Appeals Justice Joe E. Spurlock, II, the President of the Texas Judicial Council, and the members thereof, for their continuing aid and support.

TO THE GOVERNOR, MEMBERS OF THE 71ST LEGISLATURE, AND CITIZENS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

It is a pleasure to submit the 60th Annual Report of the Texas Judicial System, summarizing the activities and operations of more than 2,500 courts in Texas for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1988.

As in past reports, we acknowledge the hard work and dedication of the clerks of the courts of this state in originating and furnishing the information contained herein, upon which the staff of the state Office of Court Administration has tirelessly collated and analyzed, to bring this comprehensive, coherent report into being. Collecting and correlating the tremendous amount of data, as well as keeping it as factually accurate as possible, is a monumental task which our state employees in the court and court-support personnel system perform diligently and effectively.

Again, as in the past we appeal to the Legislature and the Governor to adequately provide funds and equipment for all the judicial efforts in Texas. As shown by the tremendous volume of work done by the courts of this state, in this and in prior reports - court volume has not dropped in these hard economic times, it has increased.

We again appeal for the support of all who rely upon an adequate court system in Texas, to provide justice for all our citizens, to join us in our request for continued adequate financial support for our courts. With the past help from the Governor and Legislature, Texas has continued a fair, efficient judicial system. We hope that support continues.

I am especially thankful for the work of C. Raymond Judice, Administrative Director of the state Office of Court Administration for his work this past year in directing the successful efforts needed to publish this report and the many programs statutorily directed to be accountable to his office. The staff of the state Office of Court Administration is commended for its dedication in accomplishing the many responsibilities mandated by statutory directives and the state Rules of Judicial Administration.

I commend this report to each of you, and the citizens in this state who rely on court statistics for their benefit. There is no other single source for most of the information contained herein.

Respectfully submitted,

Joe Spurlock, II
President

COURT STRUCTURE OF TEXAS
Descriptive Outline
September 1, 1988

The appellate courts of Texas include a Supreme Court, a Court of Criminal Appeals, and 14 intermediate Courts of Appeals.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts. Additionally, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county, presided over by a county judge. To relieve the docket congestion of this single "constitutional" county court, the Legislature has established county courts at law and probate courts ("statutory county courts") in populous counties.

The Constitution also provides for justice of the peace courts in each county. Theses justice courts also serve as small claims courts. The Legislature has established municipal courts in each incorporated city of the State.

   District courts are trial courts of general subject-matter jurisdiction. They have "exclusive, appellate, and original jurisdiction of all actions, proceedings, and remedies, except in cases where exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction may be conferred by (the) Constitution or other law on some other court. .." Generally, this jurisdiction includes original jurisdiction of felony criminal prosecutions, suits for divorce, suits over title to land, election contests, civil suits with an amount in controversy of at least $200.

   County courts at law and constitutional county courts also exercise limited subject-matter jurisdiction over civil suits and thus, to a limited extent, share jurisdiction with the district courts. Individual statutes stipulate maximum amounts in controversy over which each county-level court may exercise jurisdiction. To the extent that such "dollar amount" jurisdiction coincides with the district court, the two courts have concurrent jurisdiction. Such concurrent jurisdiction of the district and county-level courts begins with suits involving $200 and extends to the maximum amount stipulated by the applicable statute pertaining to the individual county-level court. Above such maximum jurisdictional amount of the county-level courts, the district court exercises exclusive jurisdiction.

   The district courts hear contested matters involved in probate cases and have general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, these courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

   Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal, or family law cases. In some instances, the courts that hear criminal cases exclusively are designated criminal district courts. A limited number of district courts also have the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

   Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Courts of Appeals, except those capital offense cases in which the death penalty has been assessed, which are appealed directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

3. SEATS: At the county seat of each county included in each respective geographical district.

4. MEMBERSHIP:

   a. Number: One judge per court.

   b. Selection: Partisan, district-wide elections. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the Senate.

   c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; resident of the district for two years; licensed to practice law in Texas and a practicing lawyer or judge for four years.

   d. Salaries paid by the State:

      Effective 9-1-88. . . . . $57,257
      Supplements authorized by statute may be paid by counties. Total salary must be $1,000 less than that received by justices of the Courts of Appeals serving the same geographical area.

   e. Term: Four years.

"CONSTITUTIONAL" COUNTY COURTS

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 254.

2. JURISDICTION:

   a. Legal Jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution establishes one county court in each of the 254 counties of the State, but not all such courts exercise judicial functions. In populous counties, the "county judge" may devote full time to the administration of county government.

   An amendment effective November 1985 repealed all expressed constitutional jurisdiction for the county courts and provides that they have jurisdiction "as provided by law."

   By statute (Sec. 26.042, Government Code), constitutional county courts have juvenile jurisdiction and concurrent civil jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in cases in which the matter in controversy exceeds $200 but does not exceed $2,500, exclusive of interest. County courts have the general jurisdiction of a probate court (Sec. 4, Probate Code), and they have exclusive original jurisdiction of misdemeanors where the fine allowed exceeds $200 or where a jail sentence may be imposed (Sec. 26.045, Government Code).

   Decisions from the municipal and justice of the peace courts may be appealed to the county court, and the appeal takes the form of a completely new trial (trial de novo). Appeals from municipal courts of record are an exception, where the county court reviews only the written record from the trial. Original and appellate judgments of the county court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals, with certain limitations.

   In addition to these general grants of statutory jurisdiction, many constitutional county courts are granted additional jurisdiction by statutory provisions which apply only to those courts (see Secs. 26.101 to 26.354, Government Code).

   b. Geographical Jurisdiction: County-wide.

3. SEATS: County seat of county of jurisdiction.

4. MEMBERSHIP:

   a. Number: One judge per court.

   b. Selection: County-wide, partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.

   c. Qualifications: "Shall be well informed in the law of the State." (Law license unnecessary.)

   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.

   e. Term: Four years.

NOTE: The commissioners court is not a judicial entity; rather it is the governing body of the county. It is presided over by the constitutional county judge and includes four elected commissioners. Although it performs no judicial duties, the commissioners court can issue certain writs and contempt citations.

STATUTORY COUNTY COURTS

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 170.

2. JURISDICTION:

   a. Legal Jurisdiction: Under the constitutional provision which authorizes the Legislature to establish such other courts as it may deem necessary and to prescribe the jurisdiction of such courts, the Legislature has established 170 statutory county courts in 67 counties, primarily in metropolitan areas, to relieve the constitutional county judge of all or part of his judicial duties. (Eight additional courts have been authorized by the Legislature, but not yet made operational by the county commissioners courts.) The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably according to the statute under which they are created. Some of these courts are intended to exercise subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts). The concurrent civil jurisdiction of these statutory county courts with the district court extends to greater amounts in controversy than the constitutional county courts.

   b. Geographical Jurisdiction: County-wide.

3. SEATS: County seat of county of jurisdiction.

4. MEMBERSHIP:

   a. Number: One judge per court.

   b. Selection: County-wide, partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.

   c. Qualifications: Vary according to court-creation statute. Some include two to five years' experience as practicing attorney and requirement of residence in county.

   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.

   e. Term: Four years.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 922.

2. JURISDICTION:

   a. Legal Jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided (depending upon the population) into at least one, and not more than eight justice precincts. In each such precinct, one justice of the peace is to be elected, provided that if the precinct includes a city of 18,000 or more inhabitants, two justices of the peace are to be elected from such precinct.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in misdemeanor criminal cases when punishment is by fine only. They have exclusive jurisdiction over civil cases where the amount in controversy is $200 or less and concurrent jurisdiction with both the county and district courts when the amount is at least $200 but less than $2,500. By statute, they are granted jurisdiction over forcible entry and detainer actions.

A justice of the peace may issue warrants of search and arrest, conduct preliminary hearings, serve as ex officio notary public, perform marriages, and serve as coroner in counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner. The justice court also functions as a small claims court.

3. SEATS: Determined by county commissioners.

4. MEMBERSHIP:

   a. Number: One judge per court.

   b. Selection: Partisan elections by voters of respective precincts.

   c. Qualifications: No specific statutory or constitutional provisions apply.

   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.

   e. Term: Four years.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

1. NUMBER OF CITIES WITH ACTIVE COURTS: 858.

2. JURISDICTION: By a general statute, the Legislature has created a municipal court in each of the incorporated cities of the State. Presently, municipal courts are operating in approximately 858 cities and towns. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court.

   These courts do not have civil jurisdiction, but they have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violation of city ordinances. Ordinance violations involving litter, fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation, are punishable by fines only, up to a maximum of $2,000. Punishment for violation of other types of city ordinances is limited to fines only, not to exceed $200. The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws within the city limits (predominantly traffic offenses) when punishment is limited to fines only of $200 or less. Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the State.

   Generally, municipal courts are not courts of record, and appeals from them are by trial de novo in the county court, county court at law or district court. The legislature has authorized cities to establish their municipal courts as courts of record, and appeals from these courts are on the record made therein.

3. SEATS: Determined by city or town.

4. MEMBERSHIP:

   a. Number: Generally, one court per municipality and one judge per court. Statutes allow some city governing bodies to establish more than one court and/or more than one judge per court.

   b. Selection: Elected or appointed by the governing body of the city as provided by city charter or ordinance.

   c. Qualifications: Determined by the governing body of the city.

   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.

   e. Term: Most are appointed for two-year terms and serve at the will of the governing body of the city.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE COURTS

TEX. CONST. ART. 5

§ 31. Court administration and rule-making authority

Sec. 31. (a) The Supreme Court is responsible for the efficient administration of the judicial branch and shall promulgate rules of administration not inconsistent with the laws of the state as may be necessary for the efficient and uniform administrative of justice in the various courts.

The Supreme Court of Texas has general responsibility for the efficient administration of the Texas judicial system, and has the authority to make rules of administration applicable to the courts. Aiding the Supreme Court in carrying out its administrative duties is the state Office of Court Administration, which operates under the direction of the Chief Justice.

The Supreme Court and the Legislature receive recommendations on long-range planning and improvements in the administration of justice from the Texas Judicial Council, a nineteen-member advisory board created in 1929.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Chief Justices of each of the fourteen Courts of Appeals, and the Local Administrative Judge of each county, are generally responsible for the administration of their respective courts.

To aid in the administration of justice in the district courts, the State is divided into nine administrative judicial regions. The Governor designates one of the active or retired district judges residing in each administrative judicial regions as the presiding judge. The presiding judges of the administrative regions may temporarily assign an active or retired judge to serve on a district court in the administrative regions whenever the need arises. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court convenes periodic conferences of the nine presiding judges to encourage the efficient administration of justice in the State.

TEXAS JUDICIAL SYSTEM

Subject-Matter Jurisdiction of the Courts

September 1, 1988

INTRODUCTION

The basic structure of the present court system of Texas was established by an 1891 constitutional amendment. The amendment established the Supreme Court, which is the highest state appellate court for civil matters, and the Court of Criminal Appeals, which makes the final determination in criminal matters. There are now fourteen intermediate Courts of Appeals which, since September 1, 1981, exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases. Prior to that date, these courts had jurisdiction in intermediate civil appellate cases only.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, of which there are 375 as of September 1, 1988. (Ten of these courts are designated "Criminal District Courts.")

The geographical area served by each district court is established by the specific statute creating that court and does not necessarily correspond to the area served by any previously-established court. Each court has one judge, although, by constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 14) effective in November 1985, the Legislature may provide for more than one district judge per court. The State pays the base salary of each judge and some limited expenses of the judge.

In addition to these state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county, presided over by the county judge. The county judge also serves as head of the county commissioners court, the governing body of the county. To relieve the docket of the single "constitutional" county court, the Legislature has established statutory county courts in 68 counties. As of September 1, 1988, there are 16 probate courts and 154 county courts at law in operation. Eight additional courts have been authorized by the Legislature but were not effective as of September 1, 1988.

The Texas Constitution provides for not less than one nor more than 16 justices of the peace in each county. Today there are approximately 913 justice of the peace courts statewide. Since 1953, these courts have also served as small claims courts.

By statute, the Legislature has created municipal courts in each incorporated city in the State. These courts have original jurisdiction over violations of municipal ordinances and concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts over state law violations, limited to the geographical confines of the municipality. Municipal courts do not have civil jurisdiction.

Trials in the justice of the peace and most municipal courts are not of record, and appeals therefrom are by trial de novo to the county court, except in certain counties as noted later where the appeal is to a county court at law or to a district court. When an appeal is by trial de novo, the case is tried again in the higher court, just as if the original trial had not occurred.

Jurisdiction of the various levels of courts is established both by constitutional provision and by statute. Statutory jurisdiction of the courts is established by general statutes providing jurisdiction for all courts on a particular level, as well as by the statutes establishing individual courts. Thus, to determine the jurisdiction of any one particular court, recourse must be had first to the Constitution, second to the general statutes establishing jurisdiction for that level of court, third to the specific statute authorizing the establishment of the particular court in question, fourth to statutes creating other courts in the same county (whose jurisdictional provisions may affect the court in question), and fifth to statutes dealing with specific subject matters (such as the Family Code, which requires, for example, that judges who are lawyers hear appeals from actions by non-lawyer judges in juvenile cases.)

The State provides full funding for the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the Court of Appeals located in Austin. It provides a base salary for the appellate and district judges of Texas. Most counties supplement this base salary for district and Court of Appeals judges. Counties pay the costs of "constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, justice of the peace courts, and the operating costs of district courts except for the base salary of the judge. The cities finance the operation of municipal courts.

Senate Bill 1 of the 70th Legislature, Second Called Session, the general appropriations act, appropriated $65.7 million for the operations of the Texas judiciary — including the Judicial Retirement System — in fiscal year 1988. This represents only 0.34 of one percent of the $19.3 billion total state budget for fiscal year 1988.

APPELLATE COURTS

The appellate courts of the Texas Judicial System are: (1) the Supreme Court, which is the highest state appellate court for civil and juvenile cases; (2) the Court of Criminal Appeals, which is the highest state appellate court for criminal cases; and (3) the 14 Courts of Appeals, which are the intermediate appellate courts for both civil and criminal appeals from the trial level courts.

Appellate courts do not try cases, have jurors, or hear witnesses. Rather, they review actions and decisions of the lower courts on questions of law or allegations of procedural error. In carrying out this review, the appellate courts are usually restricted to the evidence and exhibits presented in the trial court.

The Supreme Court

The Supreme Court of Texas was first established by the Constitution of the Republic of Texas, which vested the judicial power of the Republic in "...one Supreme Court and such inferior courts as the Congress may establish." This Court was re-established by each successive constitution adopted throughout the course of Texas history. The various constitutions and amendments thereto, however, provided for different numbers of judges to sit on the Court and different methods for the selection of the judges. The Constitution of 1845 provided that the Supreme Court consist of a Chief Justice and two associate justices. The Constitution of 1866 provided for five justices, and the Constitution of 1869 reverted to a three-judge court; the Constitution of 1873 increased the number to five, and the Constitution of 1876 again reduced the membership to three. To aid the three justices in disposing of the ever increasing workload, the Legislature created two "Commissions of Appeals," each to consist of three judges appointed by the Supreme Court. This system, begun in 1920, continued until the adoption of the constitutional amendment of 1945 which abolished the two Commissions of Appeals and increased the number of justices on the Supreme Court to nine, the present number.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides:

> The Supreme Court shall exercise the judicial power of the state except as otherwise provided in this Constitution. Its jurisdiction shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State and its determinations shall be final except in criminal law matters. Its appellate jurisdiction shall be final and shall extend to all cases except in criminal law matters and as otherwise provided in this Constitution or by law.

Thus, the Supreme Court of Texas has statewide final appellate jurisdiction in most civil and juvenile cases. The Supreme Court is empowered to make and enforce all necessary rules of civil trial practice and procedure, evidence, and appellate procedure and to promulgate rules of administration to provide for the efficient administration of justice in the State. A constitutional amendment effective January 1, 1986, gave the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals jurisdiction to answer questions of state law certified from a federal appellate court. The Supreme Court has original jurisdiction to issue writs and to conduct proceedings for the involuntary retirement or removal of judges in the State.

The Supreme Court is composed of one Chief Justice and eight justices, who are elected in partisan elections on a state-wide basis for six-year terms of office. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the State Senate, until the next general election. To be eligible to serve as a justice of this Court, a person must be licensed to practice law in this State, be a citizen of the United States and of the State of Texas, be at least 35 years of age, and have been a practicing lawyer, or a lawyer and judge of a court of record together, for at least ten years.

In addition to its major responsibilities of hearing oral arguments, deciding cases appealed to it, and writing opinions, the Supreme Court has many administrative duties placed upon it by the Legislature to ensure the efficient administration of justice by the Texas judicial system. These duties include: (1) promulgating the Rules of Civil Procedure for the Texas judicial system (Gov't Code §22.004); (2) promulgating rules of administration for the Texas judicial system (Gov't Code §72.024); (3) equalizing the dockets between the 14 Courts of Appeals (Gov't Code §73.001); (4) promulgating the rules of procedure for the Commission on Judicial Conduct, and disciplining or removing judges from office (Gov't Code Ch. 81); (5) supervising the operations of the State Bar of Texas and the rules and regulations for the admission, discipline, supervision, and disbarment of lawyers, and approving the law schools of the State (Gov't Code, Ch. 81); and (6) promulgating the rules for the operation of the Court Reporters Certification Board and the disciplinary rules enforced by this Board (Gov't Code §52.002). The Chief Justice has the responsibility to: (1) confer with the presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions to promote the prompt dispatch of judicial business (Gov't Code §74.001); (2) assign judges between administrative judicial districts (Gov't Code §74.002); (3) assign retired appellate justices to the various Courts of Appeals on a temporary basis (Gov't Code §73.003); (4) deliver a "State of the Judiciary" message at the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature (Gov't Code §21.004); and (5) ensure that the Supreme Court executes and implements its administrative duties and responsibilities (Gov't Code §72.006).

The Court of Criminal Appeals

To relieve the Supreme Court of some of its caseload, the Constitution of 1876 created the Court of Appeals, composed of three elected judges, with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in those civil cases tried by the county courts. The judiciary article that was created by the constitutional amendment of 1891 changed the name of this court to the Court of Criminal Appeals and limited its jurisdiction to appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases only.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides: "The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have final appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of the State, and its determination shall be final, in all criminal cases of whatever grade, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be provided in this Constitution or as prescribed by law." The jurisdiction of this Court extends to criminal cases heard by the intermediate Courts of Appeals and directly from the trial courts in all cases in which the death penalty has been imposed. The Court of Criminal Appeals (and the Supreme Court) have jurisdiction to answer questions of state law certified from a federal appellate court. In addition, the Legislature has authorized the Court of Criminal Appeals to promulgate rules of evidence and appellate procedure for criminal cases.

The Court of Criminal Appeals, as originally established, was composed of three judges. As its workload increased, the Legislature granted it the authority to appoint commissioners to aid in the disposition of pending cases. The number of judges on the Court was increased to five by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1966, and was again increased to nine by another constitutional amendment adopted in 1977.

Today, the Court of Criminal Appeals consists of a Presiding Judge and eight additional judges, who must have the same qualifications, and are elected in the same manner, as the justices of the Supreme Court.

The Courts of Appeals

The first intermediate appellate court in Texas was created by the Constitution of 1876, which created a Court of Appeals with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in all civil cases originating in the county courts. However, by 1891, the docket of the Supreme Court had become so crowded that it became apparent that other changes were necessary to expedite the disposition of appellate cases. Thus, the amendment of 1891 converted the Court of Appeals into the Court of Criminal Appeals and authorized the Legislature to establish intermediate Courts of Civil Appeals located at various places throughout the State. The purpose of this amendment was to preclude the large quantity of civil litigation from further congesting the docket of the Supreme Court, while at the same time providing for a more convenient and less expensive system of intermediate appellate courts for civil cases. Under this authority, the Legislature has divided the state into 14 Court of Appeals Districts and has established a Court of Appeals in each.

Courts of Appeals are now located in the following cities: Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, Eastland, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston (two courts), San Antonio, Texarkana, Tyler, and Waco.

Each Court of Appeals has jurisdiction of appeals from the trial courts located in its respective district. The appeals heard in these courts are based upon the "record" (a written transcription of the testimony given, exhibits introduced, and the documents filed in the trial court) and the written and oral arguments of the appellate lawyers. The Courts of Appeals do not receive testimony or hear witnesses in considering the cases on appeal.

Each of the Courts of Appeals has at least three judges — a chief justice and two other justices. However, the Legislature is empowered to increase this number whenever the workload of an individual court requires additional judges. The Dallas Court of Appeals has 13 justices, the two courts located in Houston (the First and the Fourteenth) each have nine justices, the courts located in Fort Worth and San Antonio each have seven, the courts located in Austin and Corpus Christi each have six, the courts located in El Paso and Amarillo each have four, and the remaining courts each retain the constitutional minimum number of three. There are now 80 judges serving on the 14 intermediate Courts of Appeals.

Judges of these courts are elected in partisan elections for six-year terms of office by the voters in their own districts. They must have the same qualifications for office as the justices of the Supreme Court of Texas.

TRIAL COURTS

The trial courts are those courts in which witnesses are heard, testimony is received, exhibits are offered into evidence, and a verdict is rendered. In a civil case, the verdict determines which party to the lawsuit prevails; in a criminal case, the verdict determines whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of the crime alleged. In all cases, the parties have the right to a trial by a jury of either six or twelve local citizens. Except in capital murder cases, the parties have the right to waive a trial by jury and have the judge presiding over the case make the final determination. Generally, determinations made in the trial courts can be appealed to the appellate courts for review.

The trial court structure in Texas has several different levels, each level handling different types of cases. The state trial court of general jurisdiction is known as the district court. The county-level courts consist of the "constitutional" county courts, the "statutory" county courts, and the "statutory" probate courts. In addition, there are the municipal courts, located in each incorporated city of the State, and the justice of the peace courts, located in precincts of each county of the State.

District-Level Courts

The district courts are the primary trial courts in Texas, the successor to the common law nisi prius courts. The Constitution of the Republic provided for not less than three nor more than eight district courts, each having a judge elected by a joint ballot of both houses of Congress for a term of four years. Most constitutions of the State continued the district courts but provided that the judges were to be elected by the qualified voters. The exceptions were the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861 which provided for the appointment of judges by the Governor with confirmation by the Senate. All of the constitutions have provided that the judges of these courts must be chosen from defined districts (as opposed to statewide election) and that court proceedings be conducted at the county seat of each county.

District courts are courts of general jurisdiction. The constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 14) adopted effective in November 1985 amends art. V, sec. 8 of the Texas Constitution, in pertinent part, as follows:

> "District Court jurisdiction consists of exclusive, appellate, and original jurisdiction of all actions, proceedings, and remedies, except in cases where exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction may be conferred by this Constitution or other law on some other court, tribunal, or administrative body."

This provision, while it extends a district court's potential jurisdiction to "all actions," also makes such jurisdiction relative in that the court's jurisdiction excludes any matters in which exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction is conferred by law upon some other court. For this reason, while one can speak of the"general" jurisdiction of a district court, the actual jurisdiction of any specific court will always be limited by the constitutional or statutory provisions which confer exclusive, original, or appellate jurisdiction on other courts serving the same county or counties.

Taking into account the various constitutional and statutory provisions which confer general jurisdiction on other levels of court, it can be said that district courts generally have the following jurisdiction: original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, and misdemeanors involving official misconduct; cases of divorce; suits for title to land or enforcement of liens on land; contested elections; suits for slander or defamation; suits in behalf of the state for escheat; and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $200 or more. In those counties having statutory county courts at law, the district courts generally have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the statutory county courts at law in cases where the amount in controversy exceeds $200 but is less than $5,000. The Legislature has, however, tended to increase the concurrent jurisdictional amounts of individual county courts at law above the $5,000 general limit.

The district courts hear contested matters involved in probate cases and have general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, district courts have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Court of Appeals having jurisdiction over the locale of the district court.

As of September 1, 1988, the Legislature had established 375 separate district-level courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge elected by the voters of the judicial district. In a number of locations, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

The 1985 constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 14) established a Judicial Districts Board to reapportion Texas Judicial Districts, subject to legislative approval. The same amendment also allows for more than one judge per judicial district.

Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal, or family law matters. In some localities, the courts that exercise criminal jurisdiction exclusively are designated criminal district courts. A limited number of district courts also exercise the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

Specialized Jurisdiction

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the Legislature cannot reduce the constitutional jurisdiction of a district court. Lord v. Clayton, 163 Tex. 62, 352 S.W.2d 718 (1961); Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941); Reasonover v. Reasonover, 122 Tex. 512, 58 S.W. 2d 817 (1933); St. Louis S. W. Ry. v. Hall, 98 Tex. 480, 85 S.W. 786 (1905). Accord, Zamora v. State, 508 S.W.2d 819 (Tex. Crim App. 1974). See also, Ward v. State, 523 S.W.2d 681, 682 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975); Castro v. State, 124 Tex. Crim. 13, 60 S.W.2d 211 (1933); and dissenting opinion in Ex Parte Bazemore, 430 S.W.2d 205 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968).

In St. Louis S.W. Ry. v. Hall, the Supreme Court stated the rule as follows: "If the Legislature did enough to bring into active existence a district court, it was at once clothed with the powers conferred by the Constitution upon such courts, and any attempts in the act to unduly limit those powers must be treated as futile." 85 S.W.2d at 788. In Lord v. Clayton, the Supreme Court held that, although the statute creating the 136th District Court of Jefferson County purportedly limited its jurisdiction to civil cases only, and other legislation purported to give exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases to the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County, the 136th Court was nevertheless a constitutional district court with full power to impanel a grand jury, receive an indictment, and try the accused.

A new facet has been added to this jurisdictional issue by the 1985 amendment of art. V, sec. 8 of the Constitution which now grants the district courts jurisdiction over all matters "except in cases where...jurisdiction may be conferred by this constitution or other law on some other court....".

Although the Legislature has not been able to divest a regular district court of any of its constitutional jurisdiction, the Legislature may, under its constitutional authority to create "other courts" (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 1) establish special "district-level" courts with limited jurisdiction. See Jordan v. Crudgington, 231 S.W.2d 641 (Tex. 1950) (regarding the Court of Domestic Relations of Potter County); Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941) (regarding the Criminal District Court of Willacy County).

One "Criminal District Court" was created with jurisdiction limited to criminal, divorce, dependent and neglected children, adoption, and civil habeas corpus proceedings:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County 1
....§24.920

As will be noted later, most special "Criminal District Courts" have jurisdiction concurrent with county-level courts in criminal matters.

While the courts have ruled that the Legislature may not limit the jurisdiction of regular district courts, the statutes frequently express the intention that certain district courts give primary attention to only a portion of those matters over which they have jurisdiction.

The 65th Legislature in 1977 converted all functioning domestic relations and special juvenile courts to district courts of general jurisdiction. However, these courts are to have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters. There are now 32 such courts:

As of September 1, 1988, 154 statutory county courts at law and 16 probate courts had been created, largely in metropolitan areas. Eight additional courts have been authorized by the Legislature but have not yet been made operational by the county commissioners courts. While the jurisdiction of these courts is generally carved out of that given to the "constitutional" county courts, the statutes specify in a few instances that certain jurisdiction normally in the district court is to be exercised concurrently by the county court at law and the district court.

One county court at law is given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts only in specified family law matters:

County Court at Law of Orange County	§25.1832	10

A wide variety of statutory changes have been made blurring the line between district court jurisdiction and county court jurisdiction.

In six counties, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, has been transferred to the district court:

Webb (49th, 111th, 341st District Courts) ....§24.151

All civil jurisdiction of the county court has been transferred to the district court in one county, and the district court has concurrent jurisdiction of county court criminal cases:

Eastland (91st District Court) ....§24.193, §26,167 28

All civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except for probate matters and the jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases, has been transferred to the district court in six counties:

In another county, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except in probate matters, has been transferred to the district court, and the two levels of courts have been granted concurrent jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases:

Marion (115th, 276th District Courts)
...............§24.217, §24.453, §26.258 30

In another county, all civil cases, except those involving probate matters, and all criminal cases appealed from the justice and municipal courts have been transferred to the district court, and the county and district courts have concurrent jurisdiction in cases in which the county court would have had original criminal jurisdiction:

..............................§24.106, §26.294 31

All civil jurisdiction of the county court, except in probate matters, has been transferred to the district court in six counties:

...............§24.101, §26.302, §26.303
Wichita (89th District Court)
..............................§24.132, §26.343

Rather than transfer jurisdiction absolutely from the county court to the district court, the Legislature in several instances has given both the district-level and the county courts concurrent jurisdiction in certain matters.

Twenty-one district-level courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the county court in matters normally in the county court:

Fayette..§26.175 37

County-Level Courts

The county courts were established by the Constitution of 1836. They were presided over by a chief justice, who was appointed by the Congress of the Republic of Texas for a term of four years. This continued from 1836 to 1841, when the office was made elective. The term was shortened to two years in the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861. Under the Constitution of 1866, the name of the presiding officer of the court was changed from chief justice to county judge, and the term of office was again established at four years.

The county court was abolished by the Constitution of 1869, but was re-established by the Constitution of 1876 with an elected presiding officer, the county judge, with a two-year term. The term of office was increased to four years by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1954.

Today, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county. Generally, "constitutional" county courts have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in civil cases where the amount in controversy is $200 or more, and less than $2,500; general jurisdiction over probate cases; and exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors where punishment for the offense, upon conviction, is by fine exceeding $200, or where a jail sentence not to exceed two years may be imposed. However, the county courts do not have criminal jurisdiction where a criminal district court exists unless expressly authorized by statute (Tex. Const., art. V, sec. 16). County courts generally have appellate jurisdiction (usually by trial de novo) over cases tried originally in the justice of the peace and municipal courts.

Original and appellate judgments of the county courts may be appealed to the Courts of Appeals. The Constitution provides that the county judge "shall be well informed in the law of the State ...". This has been interpreted to mean that neither formal study of the law nor a license to practice law is a necessary qualification to hold office as county judge. Presently, of the 254 county judges in the State, approximately one-fourth are licensed to practice law. Under its constitutional authorization to "...establish such other courts as it may deem necessary...[and to] conform the jurisdiction of the district and other inferior courts thereto, "the Legislature has created statutory county courts, primarily in metropolitan counties, to provide assistance to the single "constitutional" county court. The Legislature has authorized a total of 178 of these statutory courts in 68 counties to relieve the county judge of some or all of the judicial duties of office. As of September 1, 1988, 170 of these courts were in actual operation. (See list which follows.)

Under the constitutional grant of authority the Legislature has established the following statutory county courts (the number of statutory courts in each county is shown in parentheses):

The judges of these statutory courts are elected in county-wide, partisan elections for four-year terms. Any vacancies occurring between elections are filled by appointment of the county commissioners. The statutes creating these courts uniformly require that the persons serving as judges must be licensed to practice law in Texas.

The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably and is determined by the specific statute that establishes the particular court. As the varied names suggest, some of these courts have subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate, or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts); however, even the specialized name does not always disclose the complete function of the court. The concurrent civil jurisdiction of the county courts at law with the district courts extends to a higher dollar amount in controversy than for "constitutional" county courts, but to determine the exact jurisdiction of any one of the courts, it is necessary to review the specific statute that established it.

In general, county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with district courts in civil matters where the amount in controversy is at least $200 and not more than $5,000. Many of such courts, however, have had had higher maximum jurisdictional amounts established by statute. (See above for specific examples.) Other jurisdiction of a county court at law is, broadly speaking, either carved out of the "constitutional" county court's regular jurisdiction or shared with it (concurrent).

The jurisdiction of county courts at law and their relation to the "constitutional" county courts take many forms. In the creation of two county courts at law, all civil, criminal, and probate jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County....................................§26.274 38
County Court at Law of Reeves County ....§26.295

In one county, all civil, criminal, and probate jurisdiction of the county court is transferred to the county court at law but, if the county judge is an attorney, the county court exercises concurrent jurisdiction in all matters over which county courts have jurisdiction generally. If the county judge is not an attorney, the county court exercises concurrent jurisdiction only in probate and mental health matters:

County Court at Law of Bastrop County ....§26.111 39

In the creation of 40 county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in probate matters:

Two county courts at law exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in all civil and criminal matters that had earlier been transferred from the county court to the district court. The county court at law and county court have concurrent probate jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of Comal County ....§24.123, §26.146
County Court at Law of Webb County ....§24.151, §26.340 41

The Legislature provided, in the creation of two county courts at law, that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and that the judge of the county court at law could "act for" the constitutional county judge in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County.................................§25.0172
County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County.................................§25.0172 42

Similarly, another county court at law was transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to criminal cases:

County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 3. ....§25.1252 43

For six county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law:

In one county, concurrent jurisdiction may be exercised by the "constitutional" county court and the county court at law in all matters except civil cases, over which the county court at law has exclusive jurisdiction. The county court at law may exercise probate and mental health jurisdiction only when the county judge is absent or unable to handle proceedings in those matters:

County Court at Law of Wichita County	§25.2452	48

One county court at law may exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters except civil cases over which the county court at law has exclusive jurisdiction. The county court at law has concurrent probate jurisdiction with the county court:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Wichita County	§25.2452	49

One of the county courts at law has concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters except probate. Contested probate matters may be filed in the county court at law or the district court:

County Court at Law of Parker County	§25.1862	50

One county court at law has concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in all matters except mental health cases, over which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of Kerr County	§25.1352	51

In four counties, the probate jurisdiction of the county court has been vested in specialized probate courts. The statutes creating ten of these probate courts provide that they are to have concurrent probate jurisdiction only with the "constitutional" county court:

Probate Court No. 1 of Bexar County	§25.0173	52
Probate Court No. 2 of Bexar County	§25.0173

Probate Court No. 3 of Dallas County	§25.0595	53
Probate Court No. 3 of Harris County	§25.1034

Some county courts at law have been created primarily to handle criminal cases. Twenty-six are limited to criminal cases prescribed by law for "constitutional" county courts:

Justice of the Peace Courts

The position of justice of the peace was established by the Constitution of the Republic which provided for a "convenient number of Justices of the Peace" to be elected by the qualified voters of each county, for terms of two years. This office has been retained in all subsequent constitutions, although the jurisdiction of these courts has been severely restricted in later constitutions.

The justice of the peace is important in the capacity as a committing magistrate, with the authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the justice of the peace may hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge the accused, or remand the accused to jail and fix bail. In addition, the justice of the peace serves as the coroner in those counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner, serves as an ex officio notary public, and may perform marriage ceremonies.

As amended in November 1983, the Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided into at least one, and not more than eight, justice precincts, in each of which is to be elected a justice of the peace. If the precinct includes a city of 18,000 or more inhabitants, an additional justice of the peace is authorized. Approximately 913 justice of the peace courts are in operation today.

Justices of the peace are elected by the voters of the respective precincts of the county in partisan elections for four-year terms of office. There are no constitutional or statutory qualifications to hold this office and only about seven percent of the justices of the peace in the State are lawyers.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in misdemeanor criminal cases where punishment upon conviction may be by fine only. These courts generally have exclusive jurisdiction of civil matters when the amount in controversy does not exceed $200, and concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts when the amount in controversy is from $200 to $2,500. By statute, they are given jurisdiction over forcible entry and detainer cases. The justice of the peace courts also function as small claims courts. Trials in justice of the peace courts are not of record. Appeals from these courts are upon trial de novo in the county court, the county court at law, or the district court.

In 37 counties, the county court, by special statute, has been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with justices of the peace in that county:

Municipal Courts

Under its constitutional authority to create "...such other courts as may be provided by law," the Texas Legislature has created municipal courts in each incorporated city of the State.

Presently, municipal courts are operating in approximately 855 cities. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court. These courts have neither civil nor appellate jurisdiction, but do have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violations of city ordinances. Such ordinances are generally punishable by fines up to $200, but fines of up to $2,000 may be provided for violation of ordinances relating to fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation. The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws occurring within the city limits, when punishment upon conviction may be by fine only, not to exceed $200.

Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the State. In this capacity, the municipal judge has authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the municipal judge may issue search and arrest warrants, hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge an accused, or remand the accused to jail and fix bail.

Trials in the municipal courts, generally, are not of record, and appeals go to the county court, the county court at law, or the district court upon trial de novo.

Under the authority of special and general legislation, several municipal courts operate as "courts of record".

In the courts of record, a formal record and transcript is made of the proceedings in the trial and appeals of these cases are made on the record perfected in the municipal courts. Such appeals are generally heard in the county court or county court at law, but the Legislature has authorized the City of El Paso to create a municipal court of appeals to hear appeals from that city's municipal courts. The statutes creating these municipal courts of record uniformly require the judge to be licensed to practice law in this State. No such provision is required of the other municipal judges, and of the approximately 1,176 municipal judges in this State, about 43 percent presently are licensed as attorneys.

Selection and terms of office of municipal court judges vary from city to city. While in a few cities, municipal judges are elected at city elections, the vast number are appointed by the governing body of the city. Terms of office range from two years to an indefinite term—at the will of the governing body.

ANNUAL SUPPLEMENTAL COMPENSATION

Chapter 31 of the Texas Government Code authorizes the counties in each Court of Appeals District to pay each justice of the Court of Appeals for that district a sum not to exceed $15,000 per year for judicial and administrative services rendered. This compensation is in addition to the salary paid by the State. Art. 6813b, Sec. 3, V.T.C.S., limits the total salary for a justice of a Court of Appeals to a combined sum from state and county sources of $1,000 less than the state salary paid to a justice of the Supreme Court. This same provision limits the chief justices of the Courts of Appeals to receive a combined salary of $500 less than the state salary paid to justices of the Supreme Court. As of September 1, 1988, the annual state salary paid to a justice of the Supreme Court was $80,371.

Various sections of Chapter 32, Gov't Code, authorize the state salaries of some district court judges to be supplemented from county funds. The 1988-1989 General Appropriations Act, Art IV, Page 30, "Judiciary — Special Provisions," Sec. 2, limits the total salary of district judges to $1,000 less than the combined yearly salary from state and county sources received by justices of the Courts of Appeals in whose district the district court is located.

The following information regarding Supplemental Compensation was obtained from affidavits on file with the State Comptroller of Public Accounts.

ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES TO ACTIVE DUTY

Courts of Appeals

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court is authorized by Section 74.003, Government Code, to assign a justice of a court of appeals for temporary service on another court of appeals. He may also assign a retired justice or judge of the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, or a court of appeals to active service on a court of appeals.

During the year ending August 31, 1988, the Chief Justice made 51 assignments of 14 retired appellate judges to sit on the intermediate courts of appeals. While on assignment these 14 judges wrote a total of 130 appellate opinions. These included 113 original opinions on the merits, 9 concurring opinions, 1 dissenting opinion, 2 opinons refusing rehearing, and 5 per curiam opinions (See page 105).

Trial Courts

The state is divided into nine Administrative Judicial Regions, in each of which is appointed by the Governor, a Presiding Judge. These Presiding Judges are authorized by Sections 74.054 and 74.056, Government Code, to assign judges of their respective regions for service on courts other than those to which they were elected. Judges who may be assigned are regular, retired ("Senior") and former district judges and regular and retired or former statutory county court judges.

The presiding judge of one administrative region may request that the presiding judge of another region furnish judges for assignment in the region of the requesting judge. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court is also authorized (Sec. 74.002, Government Code) to assign judges of one administrative judicial region for service in another.

During the year ending August 31, 1988, a total of 4,219 assignments were made to the trial courts of the state and 13,460 days were served by the judges on assignment. Assuming 250 working days per year, this service was the equivalent of 54 judges being added to the trial courts of the state.

Retired and former judges who served during the year totalled 113. These judges received 3,361 assignments and served 11,480 days -- the equivalent of adding 46 judges to active service during the year.

Active judges serving a regular court were assigned to courts in other areas 858 times. These judges served 1,980 days, adding the equivalent of 8 full-time judges to service.

The highest number of assignments were made within or to the First Administrative Region (Dallas area) with 936 assignments and 3,748 days of service and the Second Administrative Region (Houston area) with 922 assignments and 3,722 days of service.

A report on the service of assigned judges on the trial courts during the year is found on page 106 and the names of senior, retired, and former judges who served on assignment are found on page 107.

Section 74.042, Government Code, establishes nine administrative judicial regions in the State for administrative purposes. An active or retired district judge with judicial experience in a district court serves as the Presiding Judge in each region, upon appointment by the Governor.

The duties of a presiding judge include promulgation of regional rules of administration, advising local judges on caseflow management, recommending to the Supreme Court regional changes necessary for the improvement of judicial administration, acting for local administrative judges who do not perform their duties, and implementing administrative rules adopted by the Supreme Court.

The Presiding Judge convenes an annual conference of the district and statutory county court judges in the administrative region to consult on the state of business in the courts. This conference is empowered to adopt rules for the administration of cases in the region. The Presiding Judge may assign active, senior and former district judges and active, retired or former statutory county court judges residing within the region. The Presiding Judge of one administrative region may request the Presiding Judge of another region to assign a judge from that region to sit in a court located in the administrative region of the Presiding Judge making the request.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court convenes an annual conference of the nine Presiding Judges to determine the need for assignment of judges and to promote the uniform administration of the assignment of judges. The Chief Justice is empowered to assign judges of one administrative region for service in another whenever such assignments are necessary for the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

The powers of the Government of the State of Texas shall be divided into three distinct departments, each of which shall be confided to a separate body of magistracy, to wit: Those which are Legislative to one; those which are Executive to another, and those which are Judicial to another; and no person, or collection of persons, being of one of these departments, shall exercise any power properly attached to either of the others, except in the instances herein expressly permitted.

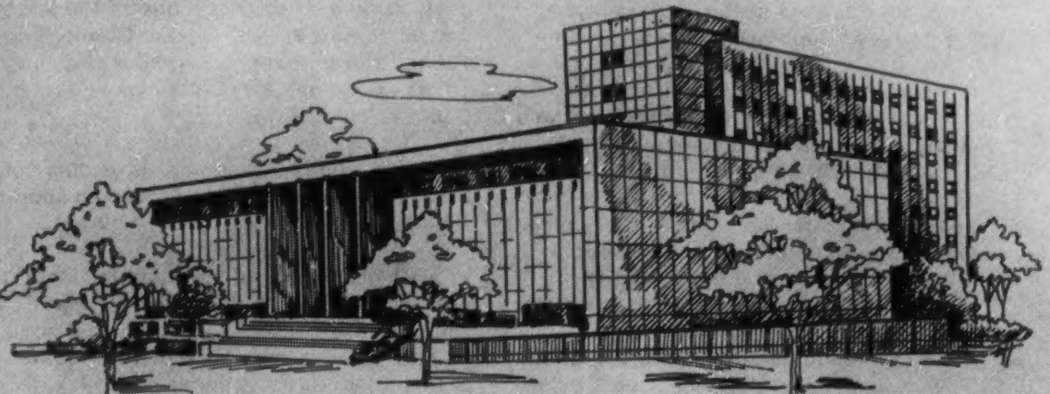
JUDICIAL BRANCH: REPORTS AND DEVELOPMENTS



SUPREME COURT BUILDING
AUSTIN, TEXAS

REPORTS OF JUDICIAL AGENCIES

Texas Judicial Council

The Texas Judicial Council was established in 1929 by Article 2328a, V.T.C.S., to make a "continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and practice of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts and methods of its improvement". To enable it to fulfill these functions, the state Office of Court Administration obtains and maintains information on the docket activity of all courts of the state. The Council conducts studies on methods to improve the administration of justice; formulates methods of simplifying judicial procedures; and submits recommendations to improve the operations of the courts to the Legislature, the Governor, and the Supreme Court.

Former Article 2328a, now Chapter 71 of the Government Code, provides for the following specific duties of the Council:

(1) continuously study the organization, rules, procedures and practice, work accomplished, results, and uniformity of the discretionary powers of the state courts and methods for their improvement;

(2) receive and consider advice from judges, public officials, members of the Bar, and citizens concerning remedies for faults in the administration of justice;

(3) design methods for simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transactions of judicial business, and correcting faults in or improving the administration of justice;

(4) file a complete detailed report with the Governor and the Supreme Court before December 2 of each year on Council activities, information from the Council's study, and Council recommendations; and a supplemental report on Council activities, findings, or recommendations at a time it considers advisable;

MEMBERSHIP OF THE COUNCIL

Council membership is composed of: (1) the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or their designees from among the membership of their respective courts; (2) two justices of the Courts of Appeals designated by the Governor; (3) two presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions selected by the Governor; (4) the chairman and immediate past chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; (5) seven members of the bar appointed by the Governor; and (6) two non lawyer citizens, one of whom must be a journalist, each appointed by the Governor.

Hon. Joe Spurlock, II, Justice of the 2nd Court of Appeals in Fort Worth, again served as President of the Judicial Council during 1987. Appointed to the Court of Appeals in 1983, Justice Spurlock previously served as district judge of the 231st Judicial District in Fort Worth, Tarrant County, from 1977 to 1983. Prior to that service, he was a member of the Texas House of Representatives and later served as Counsel to the Governor.

Hon. John F. Onion Jr., Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, served as Secretary of the Council during 1988.

Chief Justices of the Supreme Court during the year were John L. Hill, Jr. and Thomas R. Phillips.

Legislative members of the council are: Supreme Court Justice Oscar H. Mauzy, former State Senator and immediate past chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; State Senator Kent Caperton, current chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; former State Representative Mike Toomey, immediate past chairman of the House Judiciary Committee; and Representative Harold Dutton, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee.

Members from the Courts of Appeals serving during 1988 were: Justice Spurlock, and Justice Bill J. Stephens, 5th Court of Appeals, Dallas.

The two Presiding Judges of the Administrative Judicial Regions who served as members were: Charles J. Murray, Presiding Judge of the 8th Administrative Judicial Region, Fort Worth, and Judge

Thomas J. Stovall, Presiding Judge of the 2nd Administrative Judicial Region, Seabrook.

Attorney members were: John L. McCraw, Jr., McKinney; Curt F. Steib, San Angelo; Robert A. Gammage, Austin; Frank B. Davis, Houston; Ward J. Koehler, El Paso; Alan M. Sager, Austin; and Blake Tartt, Houston.

Lay members of the Council were: Bill Hartman, Rosenberg and Gene McLaughlin, Ralls.

One meeting of the Texas Judicial Council was held during Fiscal Year 1988 on September 25, 1987.

COMPENSATION OF PRESIDING JUDGES

Pursuant to Sec. 74.051(b), Texas Gov't Code, the Council set the salaries of those Presiding Judges of Administrative Judicial Regions authorized compensation under that subsection at $10,000 for each of the fiscal years ending August 31, 1988 and August 31, 1989.

COMPENSATION OF SENIOR JUDGES ON ASSIGNMENT

The Council reviewed Senate Bill 248 and House Bill 1016 of the 70th Legislative Session, which would provide compensation to a retired judge who sits on assignment in an amount equal to the compensation received from all state and county sources by the judge of the court to which assigned, in addition to the judge's retirement benefits. This would change the current law which establishes the rate of compensation at the difference between assigned retired judges retirement pay and the salary received from all sources by the judge of the court to which assigned.

AUTOMATED SYSTEMS FOR THE APPELLATE COURTS

Realizing the need for an updated study of the automation needs of the Appellate Courts and of the current automated equipment presently available, President Spurlock early in 1988, appointed the following members of the Council to a Committee on Automated Systems for the Appellate Courts:

Justice Joe Spurlock, II, Chairman
Senator Kent Caperton, Bryan, Vice Chairman
Honorable Mike Toomey, Austin
Representative James Hury, Galveston
Justice Robert Gammage, Austin
Justice Bill Stephens, Dallas
Judge Curt Steib, San Angelo

The following Justices of Courts of Appeals of Texas, were appointed to serve as an advisory panel to this Committee:

Chief Justice Austin McCloud, Eastland
Chief Justice Paul Nye, Corpus Christi
Justice Sam Bass, Houston, 1st
Justice Hal Lattimore, Fort Worth

Background

The first efforts towards obtaining automated equipment for the appellate courts of the state was begun in 1981, coinciding with these courts being vested with intermediate appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases. While funds were obtained to provide automated equipment for the clerk's offices of 14 of the 16 appellate courts, the Committee found that two critical problems now face the courts. First, funds were not provided in 1981, or later, for automated equipment for the judges offices to aid in the preparation of opinions and for legal research. Second, the equipment previously purchased for the appellate courts (clerk's office) is reaching the end of its useful life and is fast approaching obsolescence.

Committee's Study

The state Office of Court Administration prepared a detailed six page survey form to obtain current information on the state-of-the-art automated systems currently available. These forms were sent to the twenty major manufacturers which were identified as possibly having automated equipment to meet the needs of the appellate courts.

The Committee held its first meeting in Austin, on February 12th, during which the Committee studied the need for computer capabilities for each individual justice and attorney on the intermediate courts, and analyzed the available state of the art capabilities of existing systems. The Committee reviewed completed survey forms submitted by eight vendors and heard presentations made by the following eight vendors:

IBM
Apple Computer
Peerless Group
CPT Corporation
Wang Laboratories, Inc.
NCR Corporation
Digital Equipment Corp.
Prime Corporation, Inc.

The Committee met again in Austin on March 25 1988, to finalize its study and prepare its recommendations to the Texas Judicial Council, which were adopted at the Council's meeting on September 9, 1988.

Findings of the Committee

The Committee reported to the Council the following findings:

1. Current equipment in the clerk's offices is becoming obsolete and is not capable of meeting the needs of the courts.

2. Equipment is not currently available for Opinion Research and Writing.

3. Current equipment is limited to 12 work stations per C.P.U. and multiple C.P.U.'s cannot be bridged together satisfactorily to share information.

4. The annual maintenance costs on the existing equipment is approximately $1,404 per work station. In comparison, the annual maintenance for the new automated equipment would be approximately $300 per work station.

5. The current equipment is aging and the courts are now beginning to experience equipment problems which limit the full use of the computers.

6. Off the shelf software (such as spreadsheets with graphics) is not available for the current automated system.

7. Because of the overload on the current automated equipment, tasks are sometimes delayed unreasonably.

8. Most new court personnel are not familiar with the current automated equipment, which results in a lengthy training period for each new employee.

Considerations for Purchase of Equipment

The Committee recommended the following considerations should guide the purchase of new equipment:

1. Any equipment selected, hardware and software, should be available from several vendors to encourage competition on price, to ensure that enhancements to the system will be available in the future, and to provide a large user base.

2. Maintenance of equipment should be available from several companies in the cities in which the courts are located to ensure competition on maintenance contracts and a choice of companies to do the maintenance.

3. The computer system should have the capability of supporting a minimum of 2 work stations to a maximum of 100 work stations. All the work stations should have the capability of running the same software.

4. A large variety of off the shelf software should be available on the open market which would enable the courts to do word processing, text searching, spelling checks, simple data base applications, and spreadsheets with graphics.

5. The computer hardware should be available from several vendors. This hardware should include a wide range of computers and computer peripherals such as network components, modems, printers, optical disks, and other similar devices.

6. The computer system should have a large user base so that new court employees will be more likely to be familiar with the system at the time of employment.

Ideal Configuration of Automated Equipment

The Committee recommended the following ideal configuration of automated equipment for each appellate court:

I. Opinion Research and Writing

    1. One Personal Computer to be provided for each judge, each briefing attorney, and each secretary.

    2. One Dot Matrix Printer to be shared by the judge and his briefing attorney.

    3. One Laser Printer to be provided for each secretary of the Judge.

II. Library (if located in separate area)

    1. One or two Personal Computers, depending on size of court, and one Dot Matrix Printer for access to Lexis and/or Westlaw services and for communications with other offices of the court.

III. Central Staff

    1. Personal Computers for each staff attorney and each secretary assigned to central staff.

    2. One Dot Matrix Printer provided for every two staff attorneys.

    3. One Letter Quality Printer provided for every two secretaries assigned to the central staff.

IV. Clerk's Offices

    1. Personal Computers provided for each person in clerk's offices other than custodial positions.

2. One Letter Quality Printer provided for correspondence, the preparation of notices and official documents.

3. One Dot Matrix Printer provided for every two Personal Computers.

V. Security of Information

1. The Committee is of the opinion that there is a compelling need for security of the information stored on the proposed automated system.

2. Password protection must be provided to prevent the unauthorized access of information between the various judges' offices, between any judge's office and the clerk's office, and between the judge's offices and the central staff and library. In addition each court must have the ability to insert additional password protection as that court determines proper.

VI. Interchange of Information Between Courts

1. Electronic transfer of information between courts can be made available by the use of special modems and dedicated telephone lines. This aspect of the automated system should be an option which may or may not be implemented as determined by each individual court.

2. Security devices must be an integral element of this system to prevent the unauthorized access of information, either while stored or while in transit by electronic means.

Survey of Equipment on Market

To initiate this study of the automated needs of the Appellate Courts, the Office of Court Administration identified the personnel authorized for each Appellate Court, the caseload of each court, and the automated equipment presently available to each court. Following this determination, the Office of Court Administration developed a survey form identifying the necessary characteristics of any automated equipment which would meet the needs of the Appellate Courts. This survey was mailed to twenty computer companies requesting information on their computer systems. The survey described the needs of automation in the Appellate Courts and the computer companies were requested to suggest hardware and software equipment which met those needs for 3 different size configurations.

Eight of the twenty companies responded to the request for information by returning completed survey forms. The results of this survey were analyzed and summarized for the Committee.

Options Available

After examining the needs of the courts and the equipment currently on the market, two options were formulated.

The first option was to purchase one of the several integrated mainframe or mini computer systems proposed by vendors, and provide a terminal for each person in the courts and an adequate number of printers and other peripherals for efficient operations of the courts.

The second option was the purchase of a network of compatible personal computers for the Opinion Preparation and Legal Research activity and use a network system to enable each work station to interchange information and share hardware, such as printers and other peripherals; also the existing automated system in the clerk's offices would be replaced with this network system of work stations to enable the interchange of information among all work stations. In courts with 3 to 6 judges, one network system should be sufficient. In the larger courts, having 7 to 13 judges, two network systems should be considered, with the option of bridging the two networks to enable the access of information between both networks.

Committee Recommendations

The second option, that of the purchase of a network of compatible personal computers, was selected by the Committee for the following reasons:

1. The P.C. type equipment is state of the art technology and the work force is more accustomed to this mainline equipment.

2. Major vendors are continuously developing new software and add-on hardware for this type of automated equipment.

3. As most of the later models of personal computers are compatible, this option would provide a choice of several vendors for software, hardware, and maintenance, with the resulting lower cost due to competition among the vendors.

4. Because this equipment has a large user base in the work force, it is more probable that the hardware and software will be supported by the vendors in the future.

Recommendations for Funding

The study of the automated equipment presently on the market indicated that the sum of $2,240,411 would provide automated equipment for all phases of the operations of all 16 Appellate Courts of the state, including the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals, at an average cost of approximately $140,026 per court.

Assuming that the new automated systems could not use the existing software programs for case management, data processing, accounting and payroll systems, and other necessary operations of the courts, it will be necessary to provide funding to develop new software programs. This is estimated to be approximately $100,721, which is included in the sums above. Based upon the assumption that the state Office of Court Administration will develop one software package for use by all 16 appellate courts, this amount should be sufficient for that purpose. The Committee noted that if the various courts select different automated systems which cannot use the same software programs, then additional funds, in approximately the same amounts for each of the software systems, will be necessary to develop software programs for each of the different systems (i.e. approximately $100,000 for each system developed).

Multi Year Implementation

Due to the current financial position of the state, the Committee recognized that funds may not be available to purchase the entire proposed automated system in a single year and therefore it may be necessary to purchase the equipment in stages, over a period of years.

If that is necessary, the courts will need to determine the order of priorities for the purchase of automated equipment between: 1) Opinion Research and Writing functions (judge's offices); 2) Central Staff and Library functions; 3) Clerk's Office functions; and 4) the Network Components.

If funds are not available to provide funding for the entire proposal during one state fiscal year, the Committee recommended consideration should be given to its proposal as a multi year project, as follows:

1. Funding ($862,600) to be provided during the first year for the Opinion Research and Writing functions, the installation of the equipment, and for the maintenance costs of the first year. This would provide immediate assistance to the judges, their briefing attorneys, and secretaries, in the preparation of opinions, and the necessary legal research pertaining thereto.
2. Funding ($713,600) to be provided in the second fiscal year for the Network Components and for automated equipment for the Central Staff personnel. This will provide the automated equipment for the central staff of each court for legal research in the preparation of draft opinions and will enable the judges to communicate directly, and to exchange draft opinions with their briefing attorneys, their secretaries and the court central staff.
3. Funding ($664,211) to be provided in the third fiscal year for the Library and Clerk's Offices and for Systems Assistance and Software Development. This will allow the aging automated equipment in the clerk's office to be replaced with more efficient and faster equipment and will provide the resources to the state Office of Court Administration necessary to convert the present Case Management software programs to programs which will enable the Clerk's Offices to utilize the new automated equipment.

Adoption of Committee Report

On September 9, 1988, the Council adopted the Committee's recommendations and further determined that to prevent the appellate courts from falling further and further behind in the disposition of the ever increasing appellate caseload, they have immediate need for improved automated equipment. It was found that this need is of such a magnitude that it constitutes an emergency requiring immediate funding to prevent an intolerable backlog of appeals from developing in the appellate courts.

Office of Court Administration

The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System was established in 1977 by Article 2328b, V.T.C.S. (now Chapter 72, Tex. Gov't Code). The agency operates under the direction and supervision of the Supreme Court of Texas and is charged by this statute with the implementation of the provisions of the act and of any rules of administration promulgated by the Supreme Court for the efficient administration of justice in this State. The statute specifically provides for the following duties to be performed by the Office of Court Administration:

1. assist the justices and judges in discharging their administrative duties;

2. consult with the administrative judges and assist them in discharging duties imposed by law or by a rule adopted by the Supreme Court;

3. recommend to the Supreme Court appropriate means to implement the act;

4. examine the judicial dockets, practices, and procedures of the courts and the administrative and business methods or systems used in the office of a clerk of a court or in an office related to and serving a court and recommend a necessary improvement to a method or system; a form or other document used to record judicial business; or any other change that will promote the efficient administration of justice;

5. prepare and submit an estimated budget for the appropriation of funds necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system, and study and recommend expenditures of funds appropriated for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system;

6. consult with and assist court clerks; other court officers or employees; and clerks or other employees of offices related to and serving a court to provide for the efficient administration of justice;

7. consult with and make recommendations to administrators and coordinators of the courts to provide for uniform administration of the courts and efficient administration of justice;

8. implement rules of administration or other rules adopted by the Supreme Court for the efficient administration of justice;

9. perform such additional duties as may be assigned by the Supreme Court and by the Chief Justice; and

10. prepare an annual report of the activities of the Office to be published in the Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council.

The statute also directs the Office of Court Administration to provide the necessary staff functions for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial Council.

Chapter 72, Tex. Gov't Code provides that it shall be a duty of the Administrative Director of the courts to prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system. Under this authority, the Supreme Court established the Judicial Committee on Court Funding and the Chief Justice appointed the members of the Committee. The Office of Court Administration was directed to provide the necessary administrative support for the effective operation of this new Committee.

Chapter 74, Tex. Gov't Code establishes nine administrative judicial regions in the state. It authorizes the governor to designate one of the district judges, active or retired, residing in each administrative judicial region to serve as presiding judge of the region and created the Council of Presiding Judges to be chaired by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The Chief Justice has designated the state Office of Court Administration as the Secretariat of this Council of Presiding Judges and directed the Office of Court Administration to provide the necessary administrative support for this Council. When sitting in supervision of the Title IV-D Masters program under Section 21.007, Government Code, the presiding judges comprise the Board of Regional Judges for the Title IV-D Account.

Under the authority granted to it by Section 72.011 of the Government Code, the Supreme Court has also directed the Office of Court Administration to provide the necessary staff functions for the orderly operations of the Judicial Districts Board, the Judicial Education Executive Committee, and the Committee on the Code of Judicial Conduct.

STATISTICAL REPORTING SYSTEMS

Under the authority of Section 71.035, Tex. Gov't Code, which provides for the reporting of court activity and other information pertaining to the amount and character of the business transacted by the courts, the Office receives approximately 2,500 reports each month from the courts of the State. These reports are checked for accuracy and any necessary corrections are made. The information is then entered into a computerized data system. This provides ready access to the current status of the dockets of the courts throughout the state on a county-by-county basis and allows this Office to respond to numerous requests for this type of information which are received each year.

The courts' activity are submitted on monthly report forms. These include a six page report for the activities of the Courts of Appeals, an eight page report for the district courts, a five page report for county level courts, and two page reports for the justice of the peace and municipal courts. Annual reports on court activities are received from the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals.

ADMINISTRATIVE JUDICIAL REGIONS REPORT

Chapter 74, Tex. Gov't Code establishes nine administrative judicial regions in the state. It authorizes the governor to designate one of the district judges, active or retired, residing in each administrative judicial region to serve as presiding judge of the region and creates the Council of Presiding Judges to be chaired by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The Chief Justice directed the Office of Court Administration to provide the necessary administrative support for this Council. When sitting in supervision of the Title IV D Masters program under Section 21.007, Government Code, the presiding judges comprise the Board of Regional Judges for the Title IV D Account.

From the court activity reported to the Office, a monthly report of district, county, and juvenile court activity is compiled for each of the nine administrative judicial regions of the state. These reports are provided to the presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions to provide those judges with current court statistical caseload data on all counties within their administrative judicial regions, and to aid in the effective and efficient administration of justice within their individual regions.

EQUALIZATION OF COURTS OF APPEALS DOCKETS

The Supreme Court is responsible for equalizing the dockets of the Courts of Appeals (Section 73.011, Tex. Gov't Code). To assist the Court in this docket equalization, this Office also maintains a monthly reporting system on the activity of the Courts of Appeals.

From the case data supplied by the Courts of Appeals, the Office prepares a monthly report on the docket status of each Court of Appeals. The Court of Appeals Docket Report is used by the Supreme Court to determine the transfer of cases between Courts of Appeals.

During fiscal year 1988, a total of 186 cases 17 civil and 169 criminal were transferred under this authority.

The following transfers between the Courts of Appeals were made on orders of the Supreme Court:

October 1987

1 civil case from 3rd (Austin) to 10th (Waco)

November 1987

16 civil cases and 34 criminal cases from 1st (Houston) to 6th (Texarkana)

June 1988

40 criminal cases from 1st (Houston) to 11th (Eastland)
40 criminal cases from 14th (Houston) to 11th (Eastland)

August 1988

1 criminal case from 11th (Eastland) to 1st (Houston)
54 criminal cases from 14th (Houston) to 13th (Corpus Christi)

ANNUAL REPORT ON THE TEXAS JUDICIAL SYSTEM

As provided by law, the Fifty ninth Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council and the Eleventh Annual Report of the Office of Court Administration were published as a single report in March, 1988. This report has been compiled and published on an annual basis since 1929. Prior to 1984, this report was prepared on a calendar year basis. Beginning in 1984 this report has been compiled and published on a state fiscal year basis. This 567 page report includes data on and analysis of court activity at all levels of courts in the State of Texas for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1987. Approximately 23,000 monthly reports on court activity were compiled and validated during the year to produce the data in the Annual Report.

The Annual Report also contains information on the variances in subject matter jurisdiction of Texas trial courts; a thorough, descriptive analysis of the judicial system; and a comprehensive directory of judges, clerks, and other persons employed in the Texas Judicial System. Information on the assignments of visiting judges by presiding judges of the nine Administrative Judicial Regions is also included.

Approximately 2,000 copies of this Report were distributed to all judges and clerks, members of the Legislature, state and federal agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials, and libraries.

LEGISLATIVE SERVICES

The Office continued its normal liaison duties with committees and members of the 70th Legislature by providing information on the Texas Judicial System.

The Office staff worked closely with the staffs of various legislative committees which have responsibilities involving the judicial branch, and prepared the reports of various judicial boards and agencies for submission to the 71st Legislature, including the drafting of bills to implement the recommendations included in the reports.

STATE BUDGET ESTIMATES FOR THE JUDICIARY

The act establishing the Office of Court Administration directs the Office, under the direction and supervision of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, to prepare and submit to the Legislature budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial branch of government.

In fulfilling this responsibility for the 71st legislature, the Supreme Court has appointed a Judicial Committee on Court Funding to develop a comprehensive budget for the operation of the judicial system of the state. At the direction of the Chief Justice, the staff of the Office of Court Administration serves as Secretariat to the Committee and has coordinated the preparation of budget requests by the various courts and judicial agencies. Staff members have personally conferred with district judges, personnel and justices of each of the Courts of Appeals, the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the statewide judicial agencies to provide technical assistance in the preparation of their budget requests.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO APPELLATE COURT

The Office of Court Administration provides continuous support for the automated case management, accounting, and payroll systems in use by 14 of the 16 appellate courts.

The accounting personnel of this Office provide continuous training and technical assistance to the appellate courts in the daily use of these systems. In addition, this Office continues to assist in the preparation of the Annual Financial Reports for the 16 appellate courts.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO TRIAL COURTS

The Office of Court Administration has developed manual and automated caseflow management systems for use by the trial courts of the state. These systems are designed to provide each trial judge with the necessary management information on cases currently on his docket to properly manage the flow of cases through his court. The present monthly reporting system, which has been developed over the years by the Texas Judicial Council and the state Office of Court Administration, is designed to capture historical information that is, information primarily concerning cases which have been disposed of by the court. Historical information is invaluable and needed for long range planning, in that it identifies the need for additional courts or the realignment of current judicial districts, the substantial increase or substantial decrease in particular categories of cases filed in the trial courts of this state, and other information which is necessary for the proper planning for the future needs of the judiciary.

On the other hand, the caseflow management systems are designed to allow the individual trial judge to monitor the flow of cases through his or her court and to ensure the timely and consistent setting of events in the progression of each case in the court and to notify the parties of all necessary activities in each case.

The manual system is designed to be used by courts having small numbers of cases filed less than 600 700 per year while the automated system is designed to be utilized by courts which have a larger volume of cases.

The automated system has been programmed in one of the most commonly used languages for this type of program and is designed to operate on a common configuration of any number of popular "P.C." computer systems. The Office of Court Administration data processing staff has reviewed automated equipment and identified the hardware presently on the market which would accommodate the caseflow management system program. In counties having multiple courts, or a larger volume of cases, the individual computers can transfer information by means of the use of network capabilities which have been tested by the Office of Court Administration.

The manual and automated civil caseflow management systems have been requested by courts in a majority of the counties in Texas. The civil and criminal caseflow management systems are complete and out in the field. A family law automated caseflow management system is being developed and field tested, as are automated systems for the offices of clerks, including a special module to monitor child support payments. Communication and interchange of information is maintained with these courts to ensure that updates and enhancements to the systems are made as the need for modification arises.

SEMINARS ON CASEFLOW MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

To introduce the caseflow management system, both manual and automated, to trial judges and trial court personnel, the state Office of Court Administration has conducted a series of one day seminars. Participants at these seminars have included "teams" of trial judges, district and county clerks, court coordinators, data processing personnel, and other trial court personnel from a geographical cross-section of the state including both urban and rural counties. During the year, 8 seminars were held with a total attendance of 256 persons. Persons attending have included 64 trial judges, 135 district or county clerks or their deputies, 18 court coordinators, 5 data processing personnel, and 15 other individuals assigned court duties.

A manual on the caseflow management system was used as the principal teaching tool during each of these seminars. In addition, during each seminar, computer terminals were used to provide participants with "hands on" experience with the automated caseflow management system.

JUDICIAL AND COURT PERSONNEL TRAINING FUND

House Bill 309, Section 3, of the 69th Legislature (Regular Session) 1985, established the Judicial and Court Personnel Training Fund to be administered by the Supreme Court.

The program provides grants, from funds appropriated by the Legislature, for continuing judicial education to statewide professional associations of judges and other entities whose purpose is to provide continuing legal education courses, programs, and projects for judges and court personnel. The grantees of such funds must utilize these funds to ensure that each judge can meet the minimum educa- tional requirements. No more than one third of the funds appropriated may be expended for each of the three indicated following classifications of judges: 1) judges of appellate courts, district courts, county courts at law, and county courts performing judicial functions; 2) justices of the peace; and 3) judges of municipal courts.

The Judicial Education Executive Committee was created by the Supreme Court to receive recommendations from advisory committees, make recommendations concerning judicial education, and to review and make recommendations concerning grant applications to the Supreme Court. The committee also receives and acts upon requests by judges for waivers of the judicial education re- quirements.

The members of the Judicial Education Executive Committee during 1988 were: Hon. Raul A. Gonzalez, Justice of the Supreme Court, as Chairman of the Committee; Hon. Charles F. (Chuck) Campbell, Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals; Hon. Robert A. Gammage, Justice, 3rd Court of Appeals; Hon. Richard N. Countiss, Justice, 7th Court of Appeals; Hon. Peter S. Solito, Judge, 164th Judicial District; Hon. Max Sandlin, Judge, Harrison County; Hon. Hilda Tagle, Judge, Nueces County Court at Law No. 3; Hon. Jack Richburg, Justice of the Peace, Dallas County; and Hon. Kitty Schild, Judge, City of El Paso.

The Supreme Court, by order dated August 21, 1985, directed the Office of Court Administration to serve as the Secretariat to the Judicial Education Executive Committee. Under this directive, it performs the necessary functions to accomplish the purposes of the programs. Some of these functions include:

1. Process and review grant applications.

2. Review requests for grants and disburse grant funds.

3. Monitor and evaluate grantee compliance, including review of periodic financial and progress reports.

4. Conduct semi annual on site audits of grantee financial records, internal controls and compliance with grant regulations.

5. Provide informational content for meetings of the Judicial Education Executive Committee.

6. Perform other duties as assigned by the Judicial Education Executive Committee and the Supreme Court.

For the year ending August 31, 1988, the Supreme Court awarded grants to the following grantees for the amounts indicated:

Texas Center for the Judiciary, Inc.	$630,500
Texas Municipal Courts Association	630,500
Justices of the Peace and Constables Assn. of Texas, Inc.	630,462
TOTAL	$1,891,462

JUDICIAL DISTRICTS BOARD

The adoption of Senate Joint Resolution 14 as a constitutional amendment by the voters in November, 1985, established the Judicial Districts Board. The provisions of this constitutional amendment were implemented by Senate Bill 290, 69th Legislature, Regular Session (1985), now Sections 24.941 24.954, Government Code. The Judicial Districts Board is composed of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, who serves as Chairman, the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Presiding Judges of the nine Administrative Judicial Regions, the President of the Texas Judicial Council, and one lawyer to be appointed by the Governor. (This appointment is still pending.) Because no provisions were made to provide a staff or administrative support for this Board, the Supreme Court directed the state Office of Court Administration to provide those functions for the Board.

The Judicial Districts Board did not hold official meetings during 1988. However, the Office of Court Administration has developed extensive research materials to assist the Board. A resource book was prepared on the docket condition of each county in the state, including the court activity of both district and county level courts in each county which is available for consideration by the Board and the 71st Legislature.

REVISED DISTRICT AND COUNTY CLERKS' PROCEDURE MANUALS

The Office updated, edited, and published complete 1987 editions of both the district clerks procedural manual and the county clerks procedural manual. These manuals cover the various duties, responsibilities and procedures of the offices of the trial court clerks in Texas.

The original manual was published in 1972 as a district and county clerks manual combined in one volume. Since 1980, with the addition of a sample forms section, district and county clerk manuals have been printed separately.

The completely revised 1987 editions were compiled with the assistance of a committee of the county and district clerks association. Copies of the manuals, prepared for insertion in three ring binders, were provided to all clerk's offices in the state.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

A revised, updated version of the Office's popular handbook of Provisions Relating to Judicial Service, Retirement and Conduct was published in early 1988. This revision includes the latest amendments to the Code of Judicial Conduct, Opinions of the Committee on Judicial Ethics, and changes in statutory law made by the regular and called sessions of the 70th Legislature relating to judicial service, retirement, and conduct. It was distributed to all judges in the state as a compendium of constitutional, statutory, rule, and secondary sources of provisions governing the service, retirement and conduct of Texas judges at all levels.

An up to date Directory of Texas Judicial Officials was also published in September 1987. This directory contains names, addresses and telephone numbers of appellate and trial court judges and clerks in the state as well as district and county attorneys and the federal courts with jurisdiction in Texas.

CHILD SUPPORT AND COURT MANAGEMENT ACCOUNT

Section 21.007 of the Texas Government Code established the Child Support and Court Management Account. The purpose of this account was to fund child support enforcement in Texas to comply with Title IV D of the federal Social Security Act. The presiding judges of the nine administrative judicial regions administer the account in accordance with the statute. In this capacity, the presiding judges met eight (8) times as the Board of Presiding Judges for Title IV D Account during Fiscal Year 1988 to approve proposed expenditures. The Office of Court Administration, in its capacity as the secretariat of this Board, scheduled the meeting rooms, prepared research and agenda books for the meetings, and supplied the necessary administrative and support staff for these meetings.

CHILD SUPPORT ASSISTANCE

During Fiscal Year 1988, the Legislature changed the appropriation and funding pattern of these monies from the Comptroller's Judiciary Section to the Attorney General's Office. The Attorney General's Office allocated $120,000 for the Presiding Judges expenses in administering the Title IV D program and additional amounts as necessary to pay the salaries and expenses of Child Support Masters employed by various counties all matched by Federal Title IV D funds.

The Office of Court Administration was appropriated $54,000 for Child Support Enforcement Assistance during Fiscal Year 1988. The funds expended included the purchase of computer equipment necessary to implement an automated system to support the child support enforcement responsibilities of the Presiding Judges, Title IV D Masters and the individual courts. The system is designed to enable the Presiding Judges to communicate child support enforcement information between their offices and the trial courts in their regions and further enhancements will increase the effectiveness of the system.

SUPPORT TO OTHER AGENCIES

The Office continues to provide information on the Texas Judicial System and court activities to many other state agencies and professional organizations whose work requires a knowledge of the workings of the judiciary and to many individual citizens. It maintains contact with the state court administrative offices of other states, the American Judicature Society, the National Center for State Courts, and other national organizations, to keep abreast of new developments in the administration of justice in other states and to provide them with information on the Texas Judicial System.

THE AUTOMATION OF TEXAS TRIAL COURTS

The automated case management and case tracking system for Texas trial courts being developed by the state Office of Court Administration presently includes civil, family law, and criminal caseflow management programs. Called the MANAGE system, these programs were developed with the input and advice of approximately 800 trial judges, clerks, coordinators, and other court personnel who have attended 37 development seminars since 1986. An extensive software program for the clerk's office is currently being "field-tested", and will soon be available to Texas trial courts as well. All of the programs, and the technical assistance needed to use them, are available without charge from the Office of Court Administration. Information on, and technical assistance in, the selection of personal computer systems needed to run these programs is also available from that office.

The MANAGE system was created in response to the need expressed by judges, court clerks, and court coordinators for a cost-effective and efficient method of managing their trial court dockets. The primary objective of MANAGE is to provide a tool for the trial judge and court personnel to manage the court's docket. The MANAGE system automatically keeps track of each case, from the date it is initially filed, through each significant event in the flow of the case. Among its many features MANAGE automatically generates printed notices, ready for mailing to all parties in the case, containing all pertinent information.

The MANAGE software system is designed to run on an IBM-PC or compatible personal computer. Generally speaking, a typical system which would meet the needs of a single trial court consists of a personal computer with a "floppy" disk drive, one fixed or "hard" disk, and a letter quality printer. Similiar equipment would be needed for the clerk's office — the number of components depending upon the size of the clerk's staff.

The MANAGE software system currently contains four major modules: civil, criminal, family law, and clerk's office. Each of these modules performs functions unique to those areas of adjudication. The systems can be used singularly or may be integrated through local area networking so that case information entered in any of the modules is available to any other module without the necessity of reentering the data. For example, relevant items of case information entered by the clerk's office in the clerk's module when a civil case is filed will also appear on the case information screen in the civil module in the trial court. From the civil module, the judge or court coordinator can review the case and add other types of information such as trial dates or orders entered, as needed, which in turn could then be called up on the clerk's module.

All of the modules in the MANAGE system are designed so that data in the system can be easily retrieved for either viewing on any computer screen linked to the system or printed as hard-copy output.

The Civil Caseflow System

The civil caseflow program performs 10 major functions to aid the court in managing cases as they progress through the system.

First, a civil case is added to the system's database by creating a case screen containing the new case number, court number, county, style, and the date set for any action pertaining to the case.

Second, information on the case can be changed or updated as the case progresses and new events occur.

Third, routine maintenance can be performed on a case such as deleting a case record which is no longer needed or changing a case number, court number or county name on a particular case.

Fourth, a case style search can be used to locate any case in the system when the case number is unknown.

Fifth, notices can be prepared and printed for all parties involved in the case.

Sixth, information about cases set on a specific docket can be updated or typed copies of calendars can be printed out.

Seventh, special case inquiries can be made when a need arises to view or print a selected group of cases. For example, the judge may want a list of all civil cases scheduled for trial in his or her court for a particular day, week, or month, or a listing of all cases pending on the docket which are over a certain age. The system can easily provide this information.

Eighth, docket activity can be compiled for use by the Judge, such as a listing of the age of all pending cases, a report showing case activity that should have taken place but did not, and other information requested by or useful to the Judge.

Ninth, a system utilities feature allows backups to be made of all the data in the system, passwords to be entered for security reasons, and information to be exchanged with other computers using the MANAGE system. A number of other "housekeeping" functions can be performed using this option also.

Finally, information about attorneys can be maintained and updated, as needed, in the attorney module - such as names, addresses, phone numbers, pending caseload status, and vacation schedules, among others.

From the judge's perspective, the management reports generated by this caseflow program can be one of the more helpful features. For example, the case activity and age report provides a "snapshot" of all pending cases within a specified date range. The total number of pending cases can be listed in each case category along with the number of cases added and disposed during any specific time frame (e.g., a particular week, month, etc.). In addition, the pending cases can be grouped into age categories indicating whether the cases are 0-90 days old, 90-180 days old, or any other age range desired by the Judge.

The detailed aging report provides the judge with a status report on all pending cases within any time period determined by the Judge. This report permits the judge to identify specific cases which require some type of action, if he or she so desires.

The calendar exception report provides the judge with a list of cases which were not acted upon by the date previously set for a specific action to occur. Again, this report is designed to inform the judge of cases that are out of compliance with his orders or of the local rules of court.

The Family Law Caseflow Program

The Family Law Caseflow program is designed to meet the unique requirements of the judges, masters and other court personnel who adjudicate Family Law cases. The program is built around the 3 major components of a case: the judge or master hearing the case, the attorneys representing the parties in the case, and information concerning the case itself.

The attorney module of the Family Law Caseflow maintains the name, bar card number, firm, address, and telephone number of all attorneys who regularly practice before the court. It can also include other information concerning the attorney such as case settings and vacation schedules to avoid conflicts in the scheduling of trials or hearings.

Using this module, attorneys can be quickly located by name or bar card number, and case style or number. If the correct spelling of the attorney's name is unknown, the search function of the system can be utilized to locate a listing of all similar names. Once the attorney has been located, information concerning each case involving that attorney can be displayed. Information on the attorneys can also be easily corrected, updated, or deleted at any time.

Case information tracked by the Family Law program includes the case number, style, type of case, age of the case and the dates on which significant events have occurred or are scheduled to occur. For example, the case information screen reflects the date a motion is filed, whether a social study has been ordered, or if a decree has been entered. The Family Law program can also generate daily dockets which list all the cases to be heard on a specific day along with any pertinent information about each case such as whether a court reporter or interpreter is needed. In addition, calendars which reflect the caseload of the judge or master can be printed for any designated date range.

The Family Law Caseflow program has the same capability to generate appropriate notices to all parties and produce management reports as the civil and criminal programs. Particularly helpful to Family Law judges and masters are social study orders and the child support reports produced by the program. Reports can be generated by type of case (AFDC, Title IV-D, or Regular), whether the case is pending or disposed, or by date range selected by the court. The System can prepare a report for Judges or Masters listing the age of all pending cases from the date

The Criminal Caseflow program contains many of the features found in the civil program. Both programs can automatically generate notices for all parties involved in a case, can produce calendars which list the court activity scheduled to occur on a particular case, or list all cases set for trial or hearing for a specified period of time. Reports to aid the court in managing its docket, similar to those included in the civil system, are also available.

District and County Clerks Systems

The District and County Clerks System developed by the state Office of Court Administration is a complex program designed to aid the clerk's office in performing its numerous functions and responsibilities. In addition to maintaining the necessary case information, the program has the capability to monitor payment of fees, produce notices and instruments (e.g., Notices of Defaults, Judgements, Citations, etc.), generate calendars (sometimes referred to as dockets), and compile management reports.

The Case Filing screen is the doorway to the clerk's program where essential information concerning every case filed in the clerk's office is stored and updated. The case number, style, date filed, type, age of the case, parties, attorneys and other pertinent facts are kept here.

On the Case Action screen, events which have occurred on a case are entered along with the volume number and page of the minute book where the case activity was recorded. Disposition information is also maintained here.

A number of indexes can be generated from the Case Filing and Case Action screens. These can include all cases involving a civil plaintiff, a civil defendant, or a criminal defendant, all cases in case number order, or other lists desired by the clerk.

Four types of individual case docket sheets can also be produced — a civil docket sheet, criminal docket sheet, divorce docket sheet, and delinquent tax docket sheet. Space is provided on these docket sheets, below the preprinted case information, so that the judge can enter court orders, date of orders, and other information by hand while on the bench. This information can then be added to the permanent records stored by the MANAGE system for easy retrieval.

The fee system component of the program allows the clerk's office to record, update, calculate, and generate reports on fees associated with each case. The fee screen provides basic case information, a list of applicable fees for that case and their payment status as well as the form of payment — cash, check, or from amounts on deposit. The fee system can also cope with unique circumstances such as returned checks or jail time credited toward payment of fees or fines.

The fee system is programmed to monitor disbursements from the clerk's office as well as receipts. Non-case disbursements, such as the purchase of office supplies, can be recorded and disbursement of court-collected fees to the various state and county funds can be entered. Disbursement reports can be generated by date range and disbursement fund if needed.

Several fee reports can be generated by the fee system, including a case fee history report which provides a summary of all fees paid or disbursements made on any specific case. The type of fee or disbursement, date paid, the form of payment, and any remarks concerning the fee are all shown on this report.

Other available reports include a bank account reconciliation report, a cash report, an accounts receivable report, a prepaid fees report, a deposit report, and a jail time credit report. Additional reports can be added as the need arises.

Child Support Collection and Enforcement Systems

The Child Support Collection and Enforcement Systems should become an invaluable tool for the trial courts as the federal regulations appear to mandate a growing role for them in the Child Support Collection area. As a separate program, the child support system monitors the receipt of court-ordered child support payments using several methods. The Child Support Collection and Enforcement Systems can be used by the trial court, the clerk's office, the special child support masters appointed by the Presiding Judges, a separate office established by the county for Child Support Collection and Enforcement, or any combination of the above.

The Child Support Case screen provides the clerk's office with basic information concerning a case such as the case number, judgment date, type of child support case, custodial parent and parent responsible for payment. It also indicates the number of children, the method of payment, and the current employer(s) of the obligated parent.

The Child Support Case screen reflects pertinent information about the child or children affected by the court's order including their names, social security numbers, dates of birth and sex.

The Child Support Judgment screen provides detailed information about the judgment signed by the court. In addition to basic case information, a brief description of the judgment appears on the screen, the terms of the judgment, and the payment cycle ordered by the court. A current balance is indicated along with any arrears owed by the obligated parent.

The Child Support Payment screen displays a complete breakdown of the most recent payment made. Information available on this screen includes the case number, parents' names, transaction number, method of payment, the payment due date, date of actual payment, the next scheduled payment date, the amount of payment, and any additional payments, delinquencies or collection fees paid by the obligated parent.

Finally, the Child Support system features three detailed management reports which provide a thorough analysis of all child support payments received by the court. The Child Support Payment History lists every payment made within a selected date range for an individual case. It indicates the amounts ordered by the court and dates due, the amount, date and distribution of payments made, and the disbursement of payments by the court to the custodial parent. This report also provides an on-line history of the payments made.

The Report of Receipts and Disbursements lists all payments received, and all disbursements made, by the court on every case within a selected date range. A one-page recapitulation of these payments and disbursements is included in this report as well.

- The Child Support Summary Status Report provides a review of every active child support case under the court's jurisdiction as of the date the report is requested. The report contains, among other things, the type of case, the payment amount, the date of last judgment, the amounts due and paid, and any collection fees or delinquencies due and paid. A recapitulation showing the total amounts paid in each of the above categories is printed at the end of the report.

The programs described above represent the progress made in the development of the MANAGE system to date. Additional software is planned for the system, including a juvenile program and a probate program.

Local Area Network Systems

All of the programs have the networking capability to operate on a system of personal computers linked together sharing information, storage data and output devices. Using this networking capability, the judges, masters, court coordinators and clerk's office can exchange and update case information maintained in the various programs without personnel in each office having to reenter the data or move to a personal computer in another location. In addition, the systems are designed so that they may be used on personal computers in conjunction with mainframes or mini-computers by uploading and downloading the information maintained on the systems. This will be beneficial to those counties which presently have either mainframe or mini-computers in operation.

All users of the network have access to each of the MANAGE programs running on the network. At the option of the Local Judge, a system of authorization codes and passwords can be installed in the MANAGE software by the individual courts to restrict access to the system, or to any sensitive information contained therein, to authorized personnel only.

Prices for the equipment needed to operate the MANAGE system vary significantly depending upon such factors as processing speed, available memory, the length and extent of warranties, and of course, the manufacturer. In most cases, an IBM compatible personal computer, sometimes referred to as a "clone", will cost less than a similar machine made by one of the larger computer companies.

While costs may differ from one location to another, the following prices were recently obtained to give the reader some idea of the expense involved. Medium speed computers equipped with a 30 megabyte hard disk (30 million characters of storage capacity), a monochrome monitor and a letter quality printer range from $2,500 to $3,200. High speed computers equipped with a 30-40 megabyte hard disk, monochrome monitor, and a letter quality printer will be somewhat more expensive, from $2,700 to $4,000. A very high speed computer with the same features described above will cost anywhere from $4,700 to $5,800. As the speed differential between the medium speed and the very high speed computers is measured in milliseconds per task performed, speed may not be the highest priority when purchasing a personal computer.

The price for each system noted above includes a good quality dot-matrix printer, suitable for printing the notices and reports generated by the MANAGE system. Printers which are faster, produce better quality print, or have additional features can cost as much as $800. Laser printers, which offer the highest speed and quality, will normally cost in excess of $2,000.

Linking personal computers together in a networked environment as described earlier will require the purchase and installation of hardware components and software systems not mentioned above. Prices for local area networks will vary greatly according to the size and demands of each court.

Although the software programs developed by the state Office of Court Administration for the MANAGE system are available without cost to all Texas trial courts, funds for the purchase of the computer equipment must be obtained by the individual trial courts. Trial courts who have installed this system have obtained funds for hardware purchases from a variety of sources, including their county's regular budget process and from criminal justice funds through their local Council of Governments (COGs) units.

As it has with the appellate system during the last eight years, the state Office of Court Administration will continuously update the MANAGE system to reflect changes in the law, federal regulations, or state policies. These updates will be provided to all users of the systems as they become available.

As personal computers become more affordable and easy to use, more and more trial courts will look to automation for help in coping with their ever increasing caseloads. The MANAGE system is available to aid the courts in this process. Any trial court interested in the MANAGE system can contact the state Office of Court Administration in Austin for more information.

ADVISORY OPINIONS ON JUDICIAL ETHICS

Rendered During the Year Ending August 31, 1988

Judicial Ethics Committee

The Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas has appointed a Committee on Judicial Ethics to render advisory opinions on the Code of Judicial Conduct. The opinions of this committee that were handed down during the fiscal year 1988 are reproduced below.

Court Personnel -- Fund Raising
Opinion No. 110 (1988)

QUESTION: Is there a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct if the court personnel in a judge's office solicit funds for charitable organizations, churches, or civic projects:

ANSWER: Canon 5B(2) prohibits a judge from engaging in such activities or from using or permitting the use of the prestige of his or her office for such activities.

Canon 3B(2) requires that a judge should require his or her staff and court officials subject to the judge's direction and control to observe the standards of the code of judicial conduct.

The purpose of Canon 3B(2) is not to infringe upon the rights or liberties of court personnel but to assist the judge in: (1) upholding the integrity and independence of the judiciary, and (2) to avoid impropriety by the personnel under the judge's direction and control.

The committee perceives no violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct by court personnel engaging in the described activities so long as: (1) the judge's prestige or the prestige of the court is not being used to solicit funds, (2) the solicitation of funds does not interfere or conflict, in any manner, with the official duties of the court or the person doing the solicitation, and (3) there is no impropriety or appearance of impropriety in the manner of solicitation and in being a representative for the organization for which the solicitation is being done.

Court Personnel -- Sales for Charity
Opinion No. 111 (1988)

QUESTION: Is there a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct for the court personnel of a judge's office to sell girl scout cookies or other items to benefit community, school, civic, or community organizations?

ANSWER: This committee's answer in our opinion No. 110 is applicable to the posed question. Subject to the limitations set forth in that opinion, the committee perceives no violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct in the described activities.

Court Personnel -- Service on Charitable Board of Directors
Opinion No. 112 (1988)

QUESTION: Is it a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct for court personnel in a judge's office to be a director on a girl scout council board? Duties would include giving budget and investment advice.

ANSWER: Canon 5B(3) prohibits a judge from giving investment advice to such organizations.

Canon 3B(2) requires court personnel under the direction and control of the judge to observe the standards of the code of judicial conduct.

For the reasons stated in this committee's Opinion No. 110, we perceive no violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct in the described activity provided the limitations set forth in that opinion are followed.

County Judge -- Service in Organizations
Opinion No. 113 (1988)

QUESTION: Would it be a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct for a constitutional county judge to serve as a director or member of the following type organizations?

1. A metropolitan transportation organization that reviews and develops transportation needs for the county and cities in the county in which the judge is the county judge. Service is voluntary.

2. A tax increment financing district that oversees the development of public work projects and contracts for such projects in a city in the judge's county. Service is voluntary.

3. A regional planning commission, established by state law, for the development of cooperation between cities, counties, and other governmental entities in the region. Further, to discourage duplication of service in the region. Service and governmental membership is voluntary.

ANSWER: The Code of Judicial Conduct, as amended December 16, 1987, recognized the fact that constitutional county judges have a dual status;:(1) their administrative capacity as head of their county governments, and (2) their judiciary capacity as judges of their constitutional county courts. Thus, where Canon 5G prohibits most judges from accepting appointments to most governmental committees or commissions, Canon 8C(1) provides an exception that permits constitutional county judges who perform judicial functions the right to engage in duties which relate to the judge's role in the administration of county affairs, regardless of other Code restrictions. In addition, the Code in Canon 8C(2) makes Canon 5G not applicable to constitutional county judges.

The committee is of the opinion that a constitutional county judge may be a member or director of the three described organizations, and that such activity is not a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct provided compliance with other provisions of the Code are met, i.e. (1) such activities do not interfere with his or her judicial duties [Canon 5B]; (2) investment advice is not given to the organization by the judge [Canon 5B3]; (3) the organization does not engage in proceedings that would ordinarily come before the judge, in his judicial capacity, or will be regularly or frequently engaged in adversary proceedings in any court [Canon 5(1)].

County Judge -- Service on Economic Development Corporation Board
Opinion No. 114 (1988)

QUESTION: Would it be a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct for a constitutional county judge to be an ex officio member of a private non-profit corporation created for the purpose of increasing economic development in the judge's county. The corporation solicits funds to sustain its operational costs.

ANSWER: The corporation appears to be engaged in a function that is highly beneficial to a county. A county judge, in his administrative capacity as titular head of the county commissioners court, has a duty to encourage projects which are beneficial to his or her county. Canon 8C(1) of the Code permits a county judge to engage in such activities so long as they relate to the administration of the county.

The committee is of the opinion that it would not be a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct for the judge to be a member provided the judge does not personally solicit funds (Canon 4C), or lend the prestige of his office for that purpose, and futher provided no other canons of the Code are violated.

County Judge -- Service on Drug Abuse Board
Opinion No. 115 (1988)

QUESTION: May a constitutional county judge ethically serve as a co-chairman of a committee created for the purpose of eliminating drug abuse in his or her county? The committee would solicit funds for the purpose of educating the public, offering rewards, compiling statistics, and seeking necessary legislation.

ANSWER: As a titular head of county government, a county judge should encourage the formation of such described organizations. Canon 8C(1) permits the judge's participation in such programs so long as they relate to his or her duties in the administration of the county. However, the code imposes other restrictions which might make it impractical for a judge to participate in the organizations activities. For instance, (1) a judge should not personally solicit funds (Canon 4(C)); (2) a judge should not give investment advice (Canon 5B(3)); (3) such activities do not interfere with his or her judicial duties (Canon 5B(1)); (4) the organization does not engage in proceedings that would ordinarily come before the judge in his judicial capacity, or will be regularly or frequently engaged in adversary proceedings in any court (Canon 5B(1)); (5) service on the committee would not detract from public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary (Canon 2A); (6) the judge would be unswayed by partisan interest, public clamor, or fear of criticism (Canon 3A(1)); (7) such service does not cast doubt on the judge's capacity to decide any issue that may come before his or her court (Canon 4A); and (8) the judge does not try drug or drug related cases.

The committee is of the opinion that Canon 8C(1) permits a judge to ethically serve as a co-chairman of such described committee, provided he or she adheres to those provisions of the code enumerated above.

Establishment of Domestic Relations Office
Opinion No. 116 (1988)

QUESTION: May a trial court judge adopt local rules to provide for an "Office of the Guardian Ad Litem" and appoint an attorney to that office who shall have the responsibility, in accordance with orders in all domestic relations cases involving child support orders, to collect and distribute all support payments, maintain necessary records for the court, and file motions for contempt where payments are not promptly made, and in return for such services receive a small monthly service charge out of court ordered child support payments in order to finance this office.

ANSWER: The proposal is to create a self-supporting plan whereby a representative of the court will take the necessary steps to insure prompt payment of child support in accordance with court orders. The procedure would insure against a former spouse becoming delinquent for many months before this was ever brought to the attention of the court.

The proposed procedure does not result in a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct. A trial judge has a legitimate interest in seeing that the best interest of a child is protected by prompt payment of support orders. The order creating the position of guardian ad litem would not result in the judge lending the prestige of his office to advance the private interest of others in violation of Canon 2B and would not constitute the practice of law in violation of Canon 5F. The judge should not engage in ex parte communications with the guardian ad litem as to the merits of the motions for contempt or other proceedings pending in the court in violation of Canon 3A(5).

Although Tex. R. Civ. P. 173 authorizes the appointment of a guardian ad litem and the allowance of a reasonable fee for his services, this opinion does not pass upon the legality of the proposal for an office of the guardian ad litem, but only the eithical considerations.

Candidate -- Repudiate Illegal Vote
Opinion No. 117 (1988)

QUESTION: Must a candidate for judicial office repudiate a vote or votes shown by uncontroverted evidence to be illegal?

ANSWER: Whether a vote is illegal is a question of law to be decided by the proper forum, not the judicial ethics committee.

The committee finds nothing in the Code of Judicial Conduct that requires a candidate in a judicial race to publicly repudiate a vote either before or after a legal determination of the validity of the vote.

Designation of Safety Driving Course
Opinion No. 118 (1988)

QUESTION: Where a defendant elects to take a safety driving course in lieu of other penalty, may the judge designate a specific agency and course that the defendant attend?

ANSWER: Assuming that there is more than one agency offering a safety driving course, the committee is of the opinion that the judge may not designate a specific agency because Canon 2B prohibits a judge from lending the prestige of his or her office to advance the private interests of others.

Service on Council of Governments
Opinion No. 119 (1988)

QUESTION: May a statutory county court at law judge ethically serve on a regional "Council of governments" which administers federal programs and grants for various county entities?

ANSWER: No. The various functions of the council and the name of the council itself indicate that the council is governmental in nature.

A statutory county court at law judge must comply with Canon 5G of the Code of Judicial Conduct which prohibits such judge from accepting an appointment to a governmental committee, commission, or other position that is concerned with issues of fact or policy matters other than the improvement of law, the legal system, or the administration of justice.

Mediation to Expedite Settlement
Opinion No. 120 (1988)

QUESTION: Is it ethical for a district judge to mediate civil cases in order to expedite the settlement process?

ANSWER: The committee is of the opinion that a district judge may not mediate civil cases. Canon 3A(5) states "A judge . . . shall not directly or indrectly initiate, permit, nor consider ex parte or other communications concerning the merits of a pending or impending judicial proceeding." (emphasis added). Furthermore, Canon 5E of the Code of Judicial Conduct states, "A judge should not act as an arbitrator or mediator." Canon 8 makes Canon 5E applicable to district judges. However, Canon 8 also lists other classifications of judges who are exempt from compliance with 5E.

Conduction Settlement Conferences
Opinion No. 121 (1988)

QUESTION: May a district judge conduct settlement conferences for suits filed (1) in his court or (2) in another judge's court, where he only conveys settlement offers and asks questions. In the conference he sets no values, gives no opinions, and discloses no confidential information.

ANSWER: Although judges should encourage settlement negotiations, the described procedure appears to make the judge a mediator. Canon 5E of the Code of Judicial Conduct prohibits a judge from being a mediator. Also, Canon 3A(5) states, "A judge . . . shall not directly or indrectly initiate, permit, nor consider ex parte or other communications concerning the merits of a pending or impending judicial proceeding." (emphasis added)

The committee is of the opinion that the use of the settlement procedure outlined above by a district judge would be a violation of Canons 5E and 3A(5) of the code. Whether the litigation is filed in the judge's court or any other court makes no difference. The committee notes that Canon 5E is not applicable to all classifications of judges. See. Canon 8.

Service on Job Training Agency Board
Opinion No. 122 (1988)

QUESTION: Would it be a violation of Canon 5G of the Code of Judicial Conduct for a County Court at Law Judge to serve as a member of the board of directors of a private agency which is established to oversee the operations of job-training, remedial education, summer youth employment programs, on-the-job training programs, etc., under a federal job training program.

PREFACE: The committee is advised that the board of directors decides which local agencies receive funding and in what amounts. The board of directors also has oversight and reporting duties and further generally designs and implement programs to insure that the money is spent wisely and effectively.

ANSWER: From the information furnished to the committee, the agency is a private, non-profit organization. Even though the agency implements programs funded by the federal government, the agency is not a governmental committee or commission; and therefore, the committee perceives no violation of Canon 5G of the Code of Judicial Conduct in serving on the board of directors of such agency. See, limitations set out in judicial ethics opinion No. 85.

Senior Judge's Wife on PAC
Opinion No. 123 (1988)

QUESTION: If a senior judge's wife becomes a member of a political action committee for a group of hospitals, does this in any manner constitute a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct?

ANSWER: The code does not in any manner attempt to regulate the activities of a judge's spouse. Canon 2B does prohibit a judge from (1) allowing family members to influence his judicial conduct or judgment (2) allowing others to use the prestige of his office (in this case his title) to advance their private interests, and (3) allowing others to convey the impression that they are in a special positions to influence the judge.

Canon 2A admonishes judges to conduct themselves in a manner to promote public confidence, and Canon 3A(2) admonishes judges to be unswayed by partisan interests.

The committee perceives no violation of code if the senior judge's wife accepts the described appointment. However, if the judge perceives, in the acceptance of assignments, any impropriety or appearance of impropriety as a result of his or her spouse's appointments, refusal to accept such assignment or recusal after accepting the assignments would not be inappropriate.

Former Judge as an Arbitrator
Opinion No. 124 (1988)

QUESTION: Would a former district judge, who has consented to be subject to assignment, violate the code of judicial conduct by acting as an arbitrator or mediator?

ANSWER: Canon 5E of the Code of Judicial Conduct Act states "A judge should not act as an arbitrator or mediator." However, a former district judge who has complied with the Court Administration Act, Art. 74.054(3) is placed by Canon 8G of the code in the same category as a senior judge. Canon 8G(1) states, "[A former district judge]. . . is not required to comply with Canon 5E," but Canon 8G(2) qualifies this exception by stating "[A former district judge] . . . should refrain from judicial service during the period of extra-judicial appointment permitted by Canon 5G."

The committee is of the opinion that a former district judge who has qualified under Art. 74.054(3) may act as an arbitrator or mediator provided the judge refrains from performing judicial service during the period of an extra-judicial appointment.

Selective Service Registration as Condition for Suspended Sentence
Opinion No. 125 (1988)

QUESTION: May a judge ethically require proof of registration with the United States Department of Selective Service by eligible young men as a condition for the judge giving consideration to a suspended sentence or deferred adjudication as provided by Art. 45.54, Texas Code of Criminal Procedure?

ANSWER: The posed question requires a legal opinion. The function of the judicial ethics committee is to write opinions construing the Code of Judicial Conduct. The giving of legal opinions is beyond the scope of authority given to the committee.

The committee respectfully declines to answer the question and suggests that it be submitted to the office of the Attorney General or other appropriate officers authorized to give legal opinions.

COURT ACTIVITY: SUMMARIES AND ANALYSES

LAMPASAS COUNTY COURTHOUSE
LAMPASAS, TEXAS

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Regarding appellate courts, temporary emergencies such as illness of a judge or unusually burdensome cases may distort the statistical picture. In addition, there is no reliable way to ascertain the time spent by appellate or trial judges in study or research in the composing of their opinions and decisions.

At least three factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated cases.
2. The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.
3. Judges have to spend many hours on administrative matters and other judicial functions not reported in this statistical report, e.g., preparing and submitting the necessary budget requests for the operation of the court to the county commissioners, impaneling grand juries, petit jury requirements, supervision of the Adult Probation and County Auditors departments, juvenile board duties and responsibilities and many other duties not related to their judicial functions.

The county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges, especially, spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have nonjudicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

The court activity in this report contains the reported activity from all district and county level courts as reported to this office by the district and county clerks. However, not all justices of the peace and municipal courts have reported their activity. Therefore, when analyzing the court activity of these courts, it is important to note that the reported activity does not reflect all of the activity of all of the justices of the peace or municipal courts.

TEXAS COURT ACTIVITY

Overview of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1988

APPELLATE COURTS

Supreme Court

The 997 applications for writs of error filed during fiscal 1988 represented a 1.4 percent increase over the 983 applications filed in fiscal 1987, but was 10.5 percent more than the 10-year average of 902.

The Court "passed on" (disposed of or otherwise acted upon) a total of 2,731 matters during fiscal 1988, an increase of 7.4 percent over the 2,543 matters passed on in fiscal year 1987.

During the fiscal year 1988, the justices of the Supreme Court wrote 203 opinions (or an average of 23 opinions each), 6.8 percent more than the 190 opinions written in fiscal 1987 and 17.3 percent more than the 10-year average of 173.

Court of Criminal Appeals

The 924 cases added to the docket of the Court of Criminal Appeals in fiscal year 1988 represent an increase of 63.5 percent from the 586 cases added during fiscal year 1987, which ended August 31, 1987.

The Court disposed of 760 cases considered on their merits, compared to 443 such dispositions in fiscal 1987. In 1988 those 760 dispositions represented 50 percent of all cases on the docket (that is, cases filed during the year or carried over from previous years). In fiscal 1987, this disposition rate was 42.5 percent.

Courts of Appeals

The Courts of Appeals disposed of 7,984 total cases during the year, an average of 100 dispositions (52 criminal and 48 civil) per justice. The pending caseload increased from 5,450 at the beginning of the fiscal year to 5,716 at the end of the year.

A total of 8,004 cases was filed in the Courts of Appeals during the fiscal year, which included 3,780 criminal cases and 4,224 civil cases. This was an increase of 6.1 percent from the 7,543 total new cases filed in fiscal year 1987. New criminal cases decreased 3.1 percent from the 3,901 filed in fiscal year 1987 and civil cases increased 16 percent from the 3,642 filed in fiscal year 1987.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a civil case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition ranged from 6 months in the First Court in Houston to 8.9 months in the Austin Court. The average lapse of time in the 14 courts for civil cases was 7 months.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a criminal case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition ranged from 6.4 months in the Eastland Court to 12.1 months in the San Antonio Court. The average lapse of time for the 14 courts was 9.3 months.

In fiscal year 1988, the justices of the Courts of Appeals wrote 7,538 opinions, 2 percent more than the 7,392 written in 1987.

TRIAL COURTS

District Courts

Thirty-seven death sentences (compared to 43 in 1987) and 352 life sentences were assessed in the district courts during the year ending August 31, 1988. Of the criminal cases disposed by the district courts of Texas, 38.9 percent were disposed of in a period of less than two months from the date of indictment or information, 12.8 percent took two to three months, 9.6 percent took three to four months, and 38.6 percent took over four months.

New filings in criminal cases increased 6.4 percent in the ten urban counties during fiscal year 1988 as compared to 1987. This compares to an increase of 0.9 percent in criminal filings for all other counties of the State. Criminal filings increased in seven of the ten urban counties: Tarrant County (2.5 percent), Travis (13.4 percent), Harris (3.4 percent), Jefferson (14.2 percent), Dallas (14.2 percent), Bexar (10.9 percent), and Hidalgo (6.7 percent). Criminal cases filed decreased in Nueces County (18.7 percent), El Paso (12.5 percent), and Lubbock (2.5 percent).

Civil cases accounted for 73.4 percent of all new cases filed during the fiscal year. The largest segment of civil cases filed (30.8 percent of new civil filings) were divorce actions.

During the fiscal year ending August 31, 1988, the district courts of the State disposed of 48.8 percent of the total cases on their dockets (added during the year or carried over from the previous year) -- compared to 49.7 percent in 1987.

District courts handled 6.3 percent less divorce actions during 1988 than during 1987. During the fiscal year, 122,640 divorce cases were disposed of -- 28.0 percent of all civil (non-juvenile) cases handled by district courts. Some 18.6 percent of divorce cases were dismissed.

The total number of civil cases pending in the district courts on August 31, 1988 -- 514,149 -- was 3.0 percent more than the 499,355 pending on September 1, 1987. Criminal cases pending increased 11.0 percent, from 106,139 to 117,800.

County-Level Courts

During the twelve-month reporting period, the county-level courts of the State dipsoed of 46.9 percent of the 1,203,418 total criminal, civil, and juvenile cases on their dockets (added during the year or carried over from the previous year).

Looking at numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 70.9 percent (446,494) of the 629,911 new cases filed or appealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 16.6 percent (104,590), probate cases represented 8.7 percent (54,833), and mental health cases represented 3.4 percent (21,655). New juvenile cases filed were less than 0.4 percent of the total.

Total cases pending on the dockets of the county-level courts increased 4.6 percent from 612,161 on September 1, 1987, to 640,349 on August 31, 1988.

SUPREME COURT

Anaylsis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1988

The Supreme Court of Texas is the highest state court for civil appeals and promulgates rules of administration and civil procedure for the courts of Texas. It is comprised of the Chief Justice and eight justices.

The Court "passed on" (disposed of or otherwise acted upon) a total of 2,731 matters during fiscal 1988, an increase of 7.4 percent over the 2,543 matters passed on in fiscal 1987.

Regular Causes

The 123 regular causes added to the Court's docket were 2 percent less than the 153 regular causes added in fiscal 1987.

The 137 regular causes disposed of were 3.8 percent more than the 132 disposed of in fiscal 1987 but 7.8 percent more than the 10-year average of 127. Ninety-six of the regular causes disposed of during 1988 came to the Court on application for writ of error from one of the 14 Courts of Appeals. Of those 96 dispositions, the lower courts were reversed in whole or in part in 82 causes, or 85 percent. This compares to 79 percent reversals in fiscal 1987.

The 57 regular causes (including motions for rehearing) left pending at the end of fiscal 1988 represented 46 percent of the total number of regular causes added during the year or carried over from the previous year. This is 6 causes higher than the 10-year average of 51 pending causes. At the end of fiscal 1987, 71 regular causes had been pending in the Court.

Applications for Writs of Error

The 997 applications for writs of error filed during fiscal 1988 represented a 1.4 percent increase over the 983 applications filed in fiscal 1987, but was 10.5 percent more than the 10-year average of 902.

The 951 applications for writs of error disposed of during the year was 10.8 percent less than the 1,066 disposed of during fiscal 1987, but 7.2 percent higher than the 10-year average of 887. Of those 951 applications disposed of, 110 (or 11.6 percent) were granted.

The 313 applications for writs of error left pending at the end of fiscal 1988 represented 24.8 percent of the total number of such applications filed during the year or carried over from the previous year. This is 67 more pending applications than the 10-year average of 246 pending applications. At the end of fiscal 1987, 267 applications for writs of error had been pending in the Court.

Other Writs and Motions

The 769 other writs and motions filed during fiscal 1988 were 4.8 percent more than the 734 filed during fiscal 1987. (This does not include miscellaneous motions such as motions for extension of time, etc., which are often not docketed as separate causes.) This is 66 more than the 10-year average of 703 other writs and motions filed.

The 748 other writs and motions disposed of during fiscal 1988 were 2 percent more than the 733 disposed during fiscal 1987. This is 51 more dispositions than the 10-year average of 697 dispositions.

The 125 other writs and motions left pending by the Court at the end of fiscal 1988 represented 14.3 percent of the total number of other writs and motions filed during the year or carried over from the previous year. At the end of fiscal 1987, 104 other writs and motions had been pending in the Court.

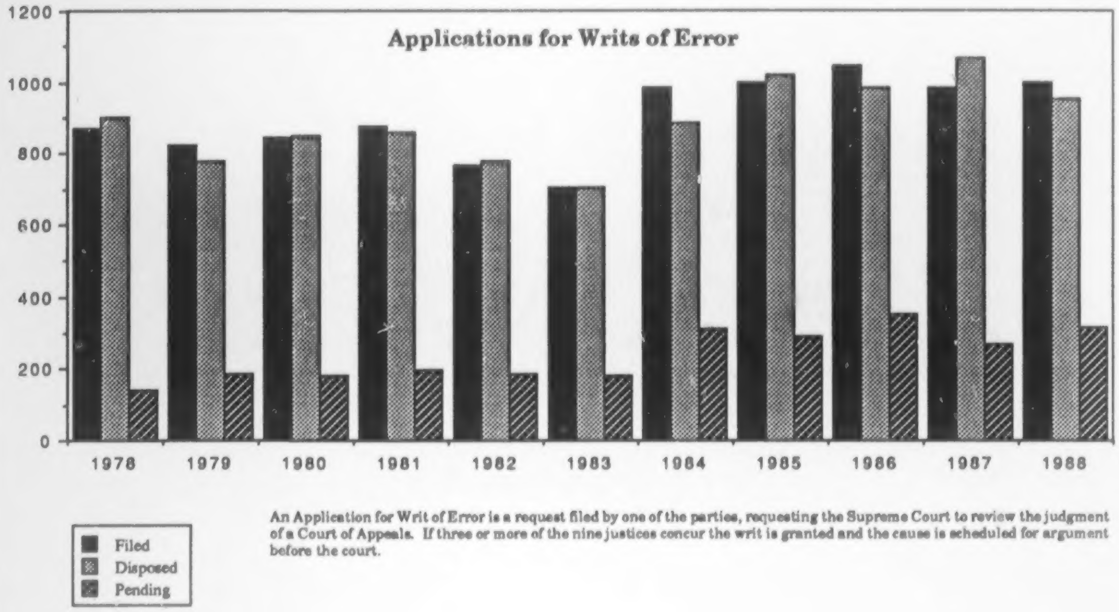
Opinions Written

During fiscal year 1988, the justices of the Supreme Court wrote 203 opinions (or an average of 23 opinions each), 6.8 percent more than the 190 opinions written in fiscal 1987 and 17.3 percent more than the 10-year average of 173. Of the opinions written in 1988, 118 (or 58 percent) were deciding opinions which disposed of causes.

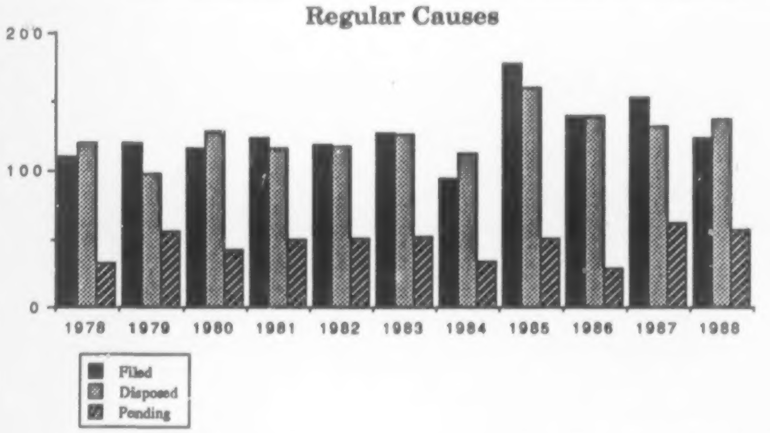
During fiscal 1988, the Supreme Court heard oral argument of 79 causes and considered an additional 33 causes submitted on briefs.

SUPREME COURT

Causes filed, disposed and pending, calendar year 1978 through fiscal year 1988



An Application for Writ of Error is a request filed by one of the parties, requesting the Supreme Court to review the judgment of a Court of Appeals. If three or more of the nine justices concur the writ is granted and the cause is scheduled for argument before the court.



Regular Causes are regular appeals or original actions pending before the court. Normally, they reach this status when a Writ of Error is granted in the cause. Petitions for Original Mandamus and Habeas Corpus, which are not disposed of upon initial review, and in which the petition is granted, may also become regular causes.

*"Regular Causes" are reported in a separate category because they are the cases which pass through most, if not all, of the steps of the regular appellate decision-making process. Regular causes are cases in which oral argument of counsel in open court is received (unless waived) and in which the Court's decision is usually reported in a written opinion. Most are reviewed in conference by the Supreme Court, before oral argument and decision, upon application for writ of error, with three or more of the justices voting that the decision of the Court of Appeals was erroneous and that the writ therefore should be granted. A similiar procedure is followed regarding petitions for original mandamus and habeas corpus, which become "Regular Causes" only after review and vote in conference of an application for writ of error or application to file a petition for original mandamus or habeas corpus. This category is obviously larger than that of regular causes.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1988

The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest state court for criminal appeals and is composed of a Presiding Judge and eight judges. Additionally, pursuant to Sec. 22.106 of the Texas Government Code, special commissioners may be designated to aid and assist the court as needed.

Until September 1, 1981, the Court of Criminal Appeals received all criminal cases appealed from the district and county-level trial courts of the State. On that date, a constitutional amendment and implementing legislation became effective which conferred on the 14 Courts of Appeals intermediate appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases except those in which the death penalty was assessed. Appeal of death penalty cases remains direct to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Decisions of the Courts of Appeals in criminal cases may be appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals by petition for discretionary review, filed either by the State, or the defendant, or both. In addition, the Court may review a decision on its own motion.

Matters Added to the Docket

During the state fiscal year 1988 which ended August 31, 1988, there was a total of 924 cases added to the docket of the Court of Criminal Appeals. Three hundred and one of these were cases where discretionary review was granted by the Court and 605 were direct appeals, death penalty appeals, writs of habeas corpus granted, and extraordinary writs. Death penalty appeals in fiscal 1988 numbered 44, compared to 52 in fiscal 1987.

The 924 cases added in fiscal year 1988 represent an increase of 63.5 percent from the 586 cases added during fiscal year 1987, which ended August 31, 1987.

In addition to the cases added:

(1) The Court had 1,416 petitions for discretionary review filed during fiscal year 1988, 77 more than the number filed during the previous year. Petitions for discretionary review were received from 142 counties during 1988, with 44 percent of them originating from Harris or Dallas Counties;

(2) There were 2,897 applications for writs of habeas corpus filed during fiscal 1988 (a 23 percent increase over the 2,231 filed in fiscal 1987); and

(3) 1,739 other motions or applications were handled by the Court (a 5.25 percent increase over the 1,653 considered the previous year).

Rate of Dispositions Decreases

During the fiscal year 1988, the Court disposed of 760 cases considered on their merits, compared to 443 such dispositions in fiscal 1987. In 1988 those 760 dispositions represented 50 percent of all cases on the docket (that is, cases filed during the year or carried over from previous years). In fiscal 1987, this disposition rate was 42.5 percent.

In fiscal 1988, 1,437 petitions for discretionary review were disposed of 301 (or 21 percent) of which were granted and the remainder were refused or dismissed. In fiscal 1987, 1,672 petitions for discretionary review were disposed of, 342 (or 20.05 percent) of which were granted.

There were 3,020 applications for writs of habeas corpus disposed of in fiscal 1988, compared to 2,242 in 1987, an increase of 34.7 percent.

Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals wrote 1,007 opinions during fiscal 1988, 817 (81.2 percent) of which were "deciding" opinions which disposed of cases. The remainder were dissents, concurrences, and opinions on rehearing. Of the deciding opinions, 235 were signed and 582 were per curiam. During 1987, members of the Court wrote 647 opinions, 67 percent of which were deciding opinions.

Total Pending Caseload Increases

On August 31, 1988, there were 2,252 total matters (excluding miscellaneous motions and applications) pending in the Court. This represented an increase of 3.9 percent over the 2,168 matters pending on September 1, 1987.

On August 31, 1988, there were pending 444 granted discretionary review cases, 747 applications for writs of habeas corpus, 744 petitions for discretionary review, and 317 direct appeals, death penalty appeals, granted habeas corpus writs, and extraordinary writs.

COURTS OF APPEALS
Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1988

There are 14 Courts of Appeals in Texas which, since September 1, 1981, have heard intermediate appeals in both civil and criminal cases.

Courts of Appeals are located in Fort Worth, Austin, San Antonio, Dallas, Texarkana, Amarillo, El Paso, Beaumont, Waco, Eastland, Tyler, Corpus Christi, and Houston. Houston has two Courts of Appeals. Each court has jurisdiction over a geographical district.

Five of the courts have three justices each. The Dallas Court, with 13 justices is the largest. There are 80 justices statewide.

Pending Caseloads Increased Again

For the second consecutive year, total pending caseloads of the 14 Courts of Appeals increased during state fiscal year 1988, which ended August 31, 1988.

The Courts disposed of 7,984 total cases during the year, an average of 100 dispositions (52 criminal and 48 civil) per justice. The pending caseload increased from 5,450 at the beginning of the fiscal year to 5,716 at the end of the year.

From calendar year 1974 through 1982, the total pending caseload of the Courts of Appeals grew larger each year as more cases than the courts were able to dispose of were added. On December 31, 1982, there were 6,816 total cases pending in the Courts of Appeals.

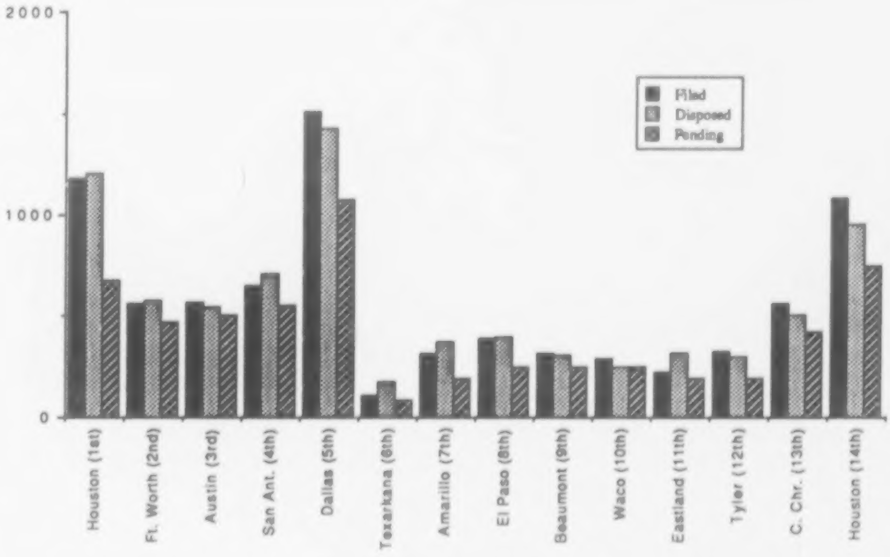
The trend was broken in calendar year 1983 when a surge in criminal dispositions reduced the total pending caseload by year's end. In fiscal year 1984, both civil and criminal caseloads were reduced during the year.

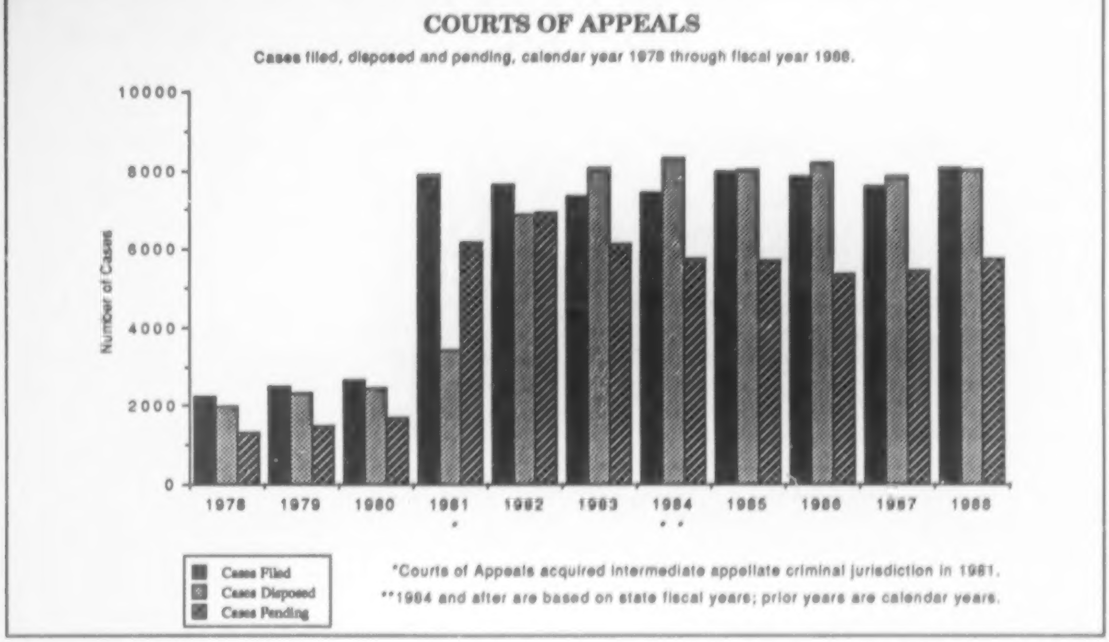
In fiscal year 1985, the civil caseload was reduced and the criminal caseload increased slightly. In fiscal year 1986, both pending civil and criminal caseloads were again reduced.

The Courts of Appeals had 3,256 criminal cases and 2,194 civil cases pending as of September 1, 1987. On August 31, 1988, 3,481 criminal cases and 2,235 civil cases were pending. The state average for pending cases at year's end was 71.5 per justice. This compares to the 1982 high of 86 pending cases per justice.

COURTS OF APPEALS

Cases filed, disposed and pending by court, year ending August 31, 1988





COURTS OF APPEALS

Cases filed, disposed and pending, calendar year 1978 through fiscal year 1988.

*Courts of Appeals acquired intermediate appellate criminal jurisdiction in 1981.

1984 and after are based on state fiscal years; prior years are calendar years.

The largest number of pending cases per justice (83) at the end of the fiscal year was in the Third Court of Appeals in Austin. The lowest number per justice (31) was in the Sixth Court in Texarkana.

Case Filings Increase

A total of 8,004 cases was filed in the Courts of Appeals during the fiscal year, which included 3,780 criminal cases and 4,224 civil cases. This was an increase of 6.1 percent from the 7,543 total new cases filed in fiscal year 1987. New criminal cases decreased 3.1 percent from the 3,901 filed in fiscal year 1987 and civil cases increased 16 percent from the 3,642 filed in fiscal year 1987.

Considering civil and criminal cases together, the First Court in Houston had the highest average number of new cases filed per justice (131) during fiscal year 1988. The other courts ranged down to 36 cases per justice filed in the Sixth Court in Texarkana. State average filings were 100 per justice.

Approximately 28 percent of all new cases filed in a Court of Appeals in Texas in fiscal year 1988 were filed in one of the two Courts located in Houston. Approximately 19 percent of all cases filed in the State were filed in the Dallas Court of Appeals.

Civil Dispositions Increase

In fiscal year 1988, there were 3,832 civil dispositions by the Courts of Appeal, an increase of 11.9 percent over the 3,426 civil dispositions in fiscal year 1987.

At the end of fiscal year 1988, 2,235 civil cases were pending on the dockets of the Courts of Appeals, 1.9 percent more than the 2,194 pending on September 1, 1987. Of those civil cases pending on August 31, 1988, 58.4 percent had been on the docket less than 6 months, 30 percent from 6 to 12 months, and 11.5 percent for more than 12 months.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a civil case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition ranged from 6 months in the First Court in Houston to 8.9 months in the Austin Court. The average lapse of time in the 14 courts for civil cases was 7 months.

A case is "submitted" when the court hears oral argument or when it is referred to the justices for formal consideration if no oral argument is heard. The average lapse of time from the submission of a civil case to the court and its disposition ranged from 0.7 months in the Eighth Court in El Paso to 3.5 months in the Austin Court. The average lapse of time for the 14 courts was 1.9 months.

Criminal dispositions decreased 5.6 percent from 4,398 dispositions in fiscal year 1987 to 4,152 dispositions in fiscal year 1988.

Of the 3,481 criminal cases pending in the Courts of Appeals at the end of fiscal year 1988, 55 percent had been on the docket less than 6 months, 33 percent from 6 to 12 months, and 12 percent more than 12 months.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a criminal case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition ranged from 6.4 months in the Eastland Court to 12.1 months in the San Antonio Court. The average lapse of time for the 14 courts was 9.3 months.

The average lapse of time between submission of a criminal appeal and its disposition ranged from 0.4 of a month in the El Paso and Beaumont Courts to 3.9 months in the Austin Court. The average lapse of time for the courts was 1.6 months.

The First Court of Appeals in Houston disposed of the largest total number of cases per justice (134) during fiscal year 1988. The lowest number per justice (58) was in the Sixth Court at Texarkana. State average dispositions were 100 per justice.

In fiscal year 1988, the justices of the Courts of Appeals wrote 7,538 opinions, 2 percent more than the 7,392 written in 1987.

The Courts of Appeals reversed, at least in part, the decision of the trial court in 14.6 percent of the cases disposed of during the fiscal year 1988, a 1.6 percent increase over fiscal year 1987.

While the 14 Courts of Appeals operate to a large extent as autonomous courts in specific geographic districts, some equalization of the dockets occurs by transfer of cases among the courts on order of the Supreme Court, pursuant to statutory authority. The Supreme Court transferred a total of 18 civil cases and 176 criminal cases among the courts in fiscal year 1988, compared with 33 civil cases and 36 criminal cases transferred in fiscal year 1987.

The 375 district courts in the state experienced a 3.8 percent increase in new cases filed during the reporting year, up to 529,537 from 510,217 in 1987. The number of new criminal cases filed increased 2.4 percent above 1987, civil cases increased 4.6 percent, and juvenile cases decreased 7.8 percent.

Civil cases accounted for 73.4 percent of all new cases filed during the fiscal year. The largest segment of civil cases filed (30.8 percent of new civil filings) were divorce actions. Of the civil cases filed, damages and personal injury cases (including worker's compensation) comprised 12.5 percent, tax cases comprised 22.3 percent, and disputes over debts comprised 13.5 percent.

Juvenile cases (Title 3 of the Texas Family Code) accounted for 2 percent of the total cases filed in the district courts.

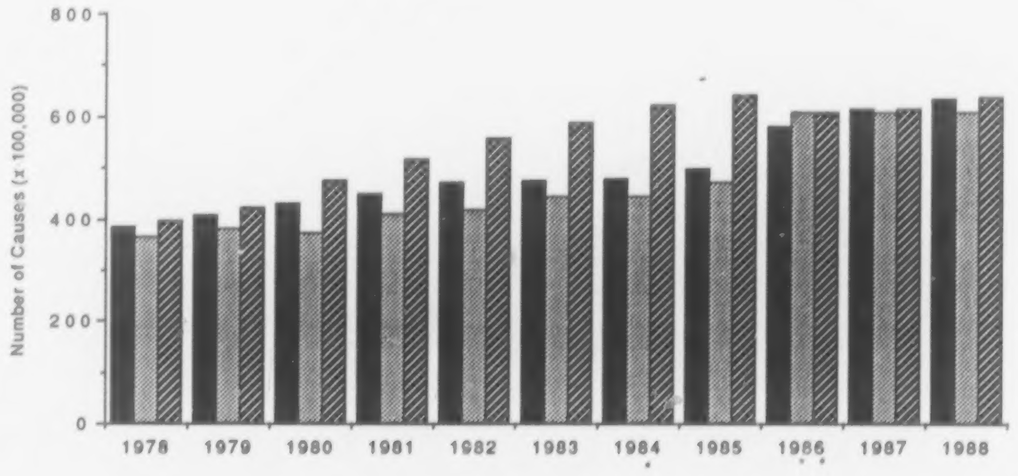
Criminal cases constituted 25 percent of the total new cases filed during the year ending August 31, 1988. Of the criminal cases, 17.7 percent involved a charge of theft (including auto theft), 19.8 percent burglary, 5 percent robbery, 10.8 percent homicide (including sexual assault of a child and of an adult), 3.9 percent felony DWI and 23 percent drug offenses. About 3 percent of the new filings were misdemeanor cases. About 12.6 percent of the criminal cases filed in the district court were by information, the remainder were by indictment.

Urban Filings Increase

The number of all categories of cases added to the docket in the ten Texas counties with populations over 210,000 increased 5.5 percent for state fiscal year 1988 over the number of filings during 1987. In all other counties, the number of cases filed increased .2 percent. These ten large-population counties (Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, El Paso, Travis, Hidalgo, Nueces, Jefferson, and Lubbock) had approximately 54 percent of the State's population and 60.7 percent of the total cases filed during the fiscal year.

DISTRICT COURT ACTIVITY

Causes filed, disposed and pending, calendar year 1978 through fiscal year 1988

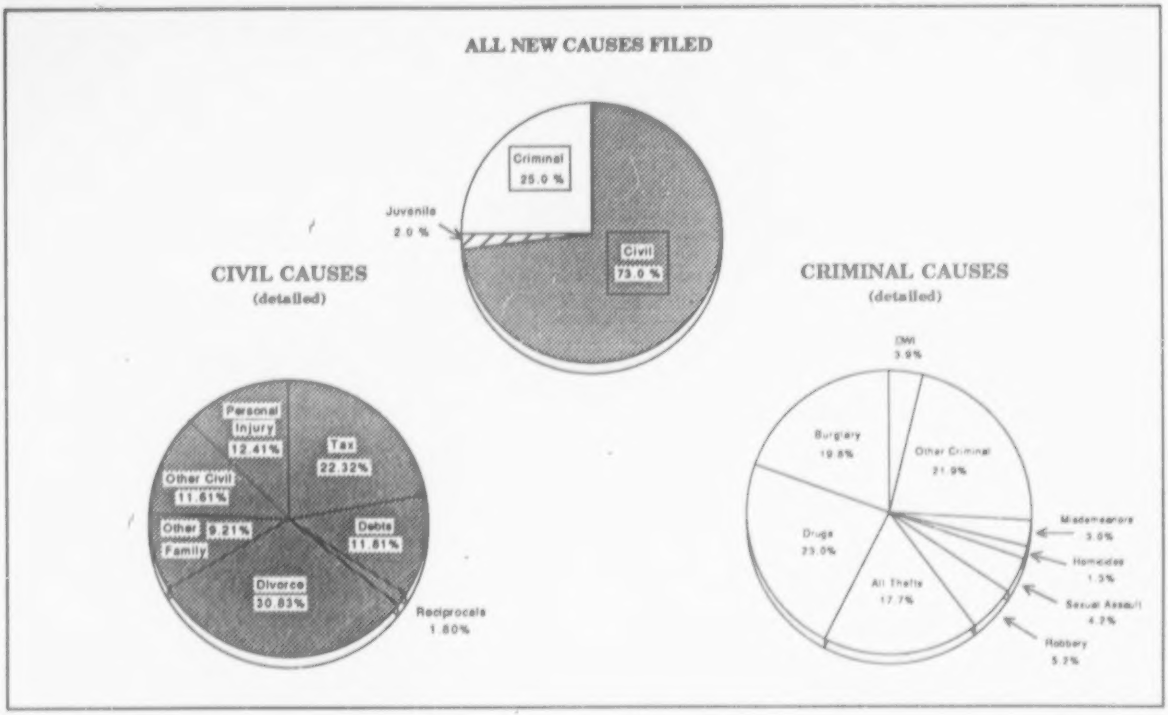


*1984 and following are fiscal years; all previous are calendar years.

 Fiscal year 1986 includes for the first time show cause motions in civil activity, deferred adjudications and shock probations in criminal activity, and motions to revoke probation in criminal and juvenile activity.

DISTRICT COURTS

Categories of new causes filed, year ending August 31, 1988



Total case filings decreased in Jefferson County (.3 percent), Nueces County (8.4 percent), Tarrant County (2.1 percent), and Lubbock County (4.3 percent). Increases in total filings occurred in the counties of Hidalgo (4.6 percent), Dallas (6.3 percent), El Paso (.4 percent), Travis (9.8 percent), Harris (7.8 percent), and Bexar (14.5 percent).

New Criminal Filing Increase

New filings in criminal cases increased 6.4 percent in the ten urban counties during fiscal year 1988 as compared to 1987. This compares to an increase of .9 percent in criminal filings for all other counties of the State. Criminal filings increased in seven of the ten urban counties: Tarrant County (2.5 percent), Travis (13.4 percent), Harris (3.4 percent), Jefferson (14.2 percent), Dallas (14.2 percent), Bexar (10.9 percent), and Hidalgo (6.7 percent). Criminal cases filed decreased in Nueces County (18.7 percent), El Paso (12.5 percent), and Lubbock (2.5 percent).

Civil and juvenile case filings increased 4.9 percent in the most populous counties, and decreased .4 percent in the remaining counties of the State. Only four counties reported declines in civil filings: Nueces County (5.6 percent), Jefferson (3 percent), Tarrant (3.8 percent), and Lubbock (5 percent).

Counties reporting increases in civil filings ranged from Bexar County (15.3 percent) through Harris (9.7 percent), Travis (8.7 percent), El Paso (4.1 percent), Hidalgo (4.1 percent), and Dallas County (2.1 percent).

Percent of Dispositions Decreases

During the fiscal year ending August 31, 1988, the district courts of the State disposed of 48.8 percent of the total cases on their dockets (added during the year or carried over from the previous year) — compared to 49.7 percent in 1987. The district courts in the ten counties with populations over 210,000 disposed of 50.6 percent. In all other counties of the State, 46.2 percent were disposed. Statewide, 56.9 percent of the criminal cases and 46 percent of the civil cases on the dockets were disposed of during the year.

In the ten urban counties the disposition rate of criminal cases averaged 59.8 percent, ranging from 70.7 percent in Dallas County to 43.4 percent in Travis County. The disposition rate of criminal cases in counties under 210,000 averaged 52.7 percent of those on the docket.

Comparable figures for civil cases show an average disposition rate of 42.8 percent in the rest of the State. The range in the ten urban counties was from 66.8 percent in Jefferson County to 36.5 percent in El Paso County.

An average of 1,620 causes per judge statewide were disposed of during the year, compared with 1,616 per judge during 1987.

Of all civil cases disposed, 28 percent were by non-jury trials. (Approximately 63 percent of these non-jury trials were in divorce cases.) Of the civil cases disposed, 19.5 percent were family law (show cause) dispositions. Of all civil cases, 16.2 percent were dismissed for want of prosecution, and 16.9 percent were dismissed at the request of the plaintiff.

The defendant entered a plea of guilty in 45.3 percent of the criminal cases disposed. Including these pleas, the defendant was convicted in 45.7 percent of the cases and acquitted in a little less than one percent. In 11.8 percent of the criminal dispositions, the defendant was placed on deferred adjudication. A little over 17.9 percent of the criminal cases were disposed of by dismissal. Of these cases dismissed, 13.7 percent were because of insufficient evidence, 13.8 percent were because the case was refiled, and 27.3 percent because the defendant was convicted of another case.

In the cases in which the defendant pleaded not guilty and which were disposed of by jury verdicts, the defendant was found guilty in 83.5 percent of the cases and was acquitted in 16.5 percent. In trials before the judge alone on not-guilty pleas, convictions resulted in 64.5 percent of the cases and acquittals in 35.5 percent.

Among the criminal cases, the highest rate for disposition by conviction was the category of felony driving while intoxicated (DWI) with 69.6 percent by convictions. The highest rate of disposition by dismissal was of capital murder (36.9 percent). The lowest rate of dismissal was for felony DWI (9.6 percent.

Death Sentences Imposed

Thirty-seven death sentences (compared to 43 in 1987) and 352 life sentences were assessed in the district courts during the year ending August 31, 1988. Of the criminal cases disposed by the district courts of Texas, 38.9 percent were disposed of in a period of less than two months from the date of indictment or information, 12.8 percent took two to three months, 9.6 percent took three to four months, and 38.6 percent took over four months.

Of juvenile cases handled by the district courts, a finding of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (CINS) was entered in 54.4 percent of the cases disposed. The juvenile was found not to have engaged in the proscribed conduct in one percent.

District courts handled 6.3 percent less divorce actions during 1988 than during 1987. During the fiscal year, 122,640 divorce cases were disposed of — 28.0 percent of all civil (non-juvenile) cases handled by district courts. Some 18.6 percent of divorce cases were dismissed.

Tax cases tend to stay on the docket for long periods of time compared to other categories of cases. This fiscal year, 30.3 percent of the tax cases filed during the year or carried over from the previous year were disposed of by the district courts as opposed to 31.8 percent in fiscal year 1987. Over 69 percent of tax case dispositions were either dismissed for want of prosecution or by the plaintiff.

District courts disposed of 6.3 percent more personal injury-type cases during 1988 than during 1987. More than 31 percent of the personal injury-type ended in agreed judgments, and 22.0 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff.

Of the 438,214 civil dispositions during the year ending August 31, 1988, the courts disposed of 27.5 percent of the cases in under three months, 18.5 percent in three to six months, 10.1 percent in 12 to 18 months.

The total number of civil cases pending in the district courts on August 31, 1988 — 514,149 — was 3.0 percent more than the 499,355 pending on September 1, 1987. Criminal cases pending increased 11.0 percent, from 106,139 to 117,800.

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS
Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1988

The county clerk in each of the 254 counties of Texas is supplied forms by the Judicial Council for reporting the judicial activity in the county-level courts ("constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, probate courts, etc.). For the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1988, the clerks in all 254 counties reported activity all twelve months, for a 100 percent reporting rate.

Looking at numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 70.9 percent (446,494) of the 629,911 new cases filed or appealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 16.6 percent (104,590), probate cases represented 8.7 percent (54,833), and mental health cases represented 3.4 percent (21,655). New juvenile cases filed were less than 0.4 percent of the total.

DWI Cases Top Criminal Dockets

Concerning the criminal cases only, 22.9 percent of those filed in or appealed to the county-level courts were for driving while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs (DWI/DUID), 20.2 percent were for theft, 5.7 percent for violations of drug laws, 20.4 percent for traffic offenses (79.5 percent of which were cases appealed from justice of the peace or municipal courts), 3.3 percent were for simple assault, and 27.5 percent were for other criminal offenses.

Again concerning criminal cases only, 21.3 percent of the total cases added to the county-level court dockets came by way of appeal from justice of the peace or municipal courts rather than being filed originally in the county-level courts or added in another manner.

Debt Suits Dominate Civil Dockets

Of the civil cases filed in or appealed to the county-level courts during the year ending August 31, 1988, 57.2 percent were classified as suits on debt, 11.4 percent concerned personal injury/damage suits, 4.4 percent were divorce suits, 1.5 percent were tax suits, 1.7 percent concerned other family matters, and 23.9 percent were other civil cases.

During the twelve-month reporting period, the county-level courts of the State disposed of 46.9 percent of the 1,203,418 total criminal, civil, and juvenile cases on their dockets (added during the year or carried over from the previous year). No statistics on the disposition of probate or mental health cases are recorded. The disposition rate was highest for juvenile cases (60.2 percent). Forty-nine percent of the criminal cases on the docket were disposed of as were 39 percent of the civil cases. Within the category of criminal cases on the docket, 57 percent of the drug charges, 52.8 percent of the DWI/DUID charges, 34.3 percent of theft charges, 52.5 percent

JUVENILE COURT ACTIVITY

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1988

Section 51.04 of the Texas Family Code provides for the designation of a court or courts in each county as the juvenile court, to hear proceedings under Title 3 of the Family Code. The court designated must be either a district court, criminal district court, county court at law, or constitutional county court. The designation is to be made by the juvenile board in each county, or if there is none, by the judges of the above-mentioned types of courts in the county.

The total statewide activity indicates that during the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1988 about 84.5 percent of the juvenile cases in the State were handled by district courts and 15.5 percent were handled by county-level courts (county courts at law or constitutional county courts).

Juvenile Dispositions Increase Slightly

Statewide, 12,678 new juvenile cases were filed during fiscal year 1988. Motions to revoke probation totaled 1,939. Of the new filings, 12,087 were allegations of delinquent conduct and 591 were for allegations of conduct indicating a need for supervision. The courts disposed of 16,326 cases — 0.2 percent more than in 1987.

Findings of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) were entered in 68 percent of the cases in which findings were made. Findings of no delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision were entered in less than one percent. The remaining juvenile cases were either dismissed or otherwise disposed.

Juvenile Probations Decrease

Of those children found to be delinquent or in need of supervision, 75 percent were placed on formal probation, as compared to 80.9 percent in 1987. Where probations were granted, 6,664 (or 80 percent) of the children were placed in the care of their parents; 1,542 (or 18.5 percent) were placed in residential care facilities; and 116 (or 1.4 percent) were placed with foster parents.

Children found to be delinquent were ordered confined to a Texas Youth Commission facility in 15.7 percent of the cases.

During fiscal year 1988, 107 children were certified to be tried as adults, down from 132 children in 1987.

Other actions taken by juvenile courts during the fiscal year included the holding of 17,172 detention hearings and 1,214 hearings on motions to modify court orders.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1988

The Judicial Council determined from various sources that there were 922 justices of the peace in Texas during the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1988. Each justice was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in that court. Statewide, the Council received 8,805 reports out of a possible 11,064 for the year (an 80 percent reporting rate).

Sixty-five Percent of Filings are Traffic Cases

Criminal misdemeanor cases comprised 89 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Of these misdemeanor filings, 73 percent were traffic cases (65 percent of all cases filed). During the fiscal year, 1,569,977 traffic cases were reported filed. Non-traffic criminal cases comprised 27 percent of the criminal cases filed. Civil cases provided 11 percent of the new cases filed. Twenty-nine percent of all civil filings were small claims suits, 39.4 percent were forcible entry and detainer suits, and 31.6 percent were other civil actions.

In addition to cases filed, the reporting courts held 9,274 hearings to determine if a peace bond should be issued. In their capacity as a state magistrate, the reporting justices of the peace accepted 50,439 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 54,291 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). There were 2,510 examining trials held (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) and 13,660 inquests conducted. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 36,689. Also, 6,994 search warrants were issued, and 126,017 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings. Arrest warrants were issued for 506,167 persons. Emergency mental commitment hearings were conducted on 5,822 occasions, and 13,244 matters relating to juveniles were transacted.

Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial, including dismissals (other than those granted after completing defensive driving or deferred disposition), and at trial. Seventy-three percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 16 percent at trial, and 10.5 percent were dismissed after the defendant completed a defensive driving course, a period of deferred disposition, or provided proof of financial responsibility for the operation of a motor vehicle.

Looking at traffic cases only, 20 percent were dismissed (either prior to trial or after trial) and 8 percent were disposed of by trial. The remaining 72 percent were disposed of prior to trial, 98 percent of those by payment of fine. Of the 8 percent that went to trial, 98 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the remaining cases were tried before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 93 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 81.6 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 63 percent were disposed of prior to trial by payment of fine or forfeiture of deposit made to insure appearance. Fifteen percent went to trial. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 90 percent of the trials before a judge alone and in 70 percent of the jury trials.

A much higher percentage (73 percent) of all civil suits went to trial than did criminal cases (9.6 percent). Twenty-seven percent of the civil suits were dismissed before trial. Of the cases that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge alone and the remainder before a jury.

The courts reported the disposition of 2,065,173 cases, which is 85 percent of the 2,416,384 filed, up from 84 percent during the previous year. Appeals were filed in 25,135 cases tried in the justice of the peace courts, or a little more than one percent of the cases disposed.

Reported Revenues Top $91 Million

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during the year ending August 31, 1988, was $91,772,374, over ten million more than the previous year. This revenue becomes part of the treasury of the county where the court is located except for certain court costs on each case which are remitted to special funds of the State.

Finally, justices of the peace reported holding 93,956 conferences prior to any legal action being filed in their courts. These conferences resulted in 43,416 causes not being filed as formal cases. (Information on such conferences is not compiled by all reporting justices.)

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Explanation of Case Categories

1. Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all class C misdemeanor violations of the traffic laws of Texas and other violations of laws relating to the operation or ownership of a motor vehicle (for example, Speeding, Stop Sign, Red Light, Inspection Sticker, Driver's License, Registration, etc.). Maximum punishment is by fine only, not to exceed $200.

2. Non-Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all other class C misdemeanor criminal violations usually found in the Penal Code of Texas and associated state laws (for example, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, Assault, Theft under $20, Parks and Wildlife Violations, etc.). Maximum punishment is by fine only, not to exceed $200.

3. Small Claims Suits. This category includes all suits for the recovery of money (damages or debt up to $1,000) brought to the justice of the peace as judge of the Small Claims Court in accordance with Tex. Gov't Code Ann. ch. 29 (Vernon Pamph. 1986).

4. Forcible Entry and Detainer. This category includes all suits for forcible entry and detainer (recovery of possession of premises) brought under authority of Tex. Gov't Code Ann. sec. 27.031 (Vernon Pamph. 1986), Tx. Prop. Code Ann. secs. 24.001-24.008, (Vernon Supp. 1986), and Tex. R. Civ. P. 738-755.

5. Other Civil Suits. This category includes all other suits within the civil jurisdiction of the justice of the peace court, including those for recovery of money (damages or debt up to $1,000) and for foreclosure of mortgages and of liens upon or for possession of personal property in cases in which the amount in controversy is otherwise within the justice court's jurisdiction in accordance with Tex. Gov't Code Ann. sec. 27.031.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilites in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

It is important to note that reported totals for justice of the peace and municipal courts do not reflect 100% of the activity of those courts, as not all of these courts have submitted reports on the activity of their courts to this office.

One final caution: Because of the large number of courts in Texas and the huge volume of court activity, reporting errors are bound to occur. The staff of the Texas Judicial Council and the clerks of the court work closely to keep such reporting errors to a minimum. When errors are found after publication of an Annual Report, adjustments are made in pending case figures at the beginning of the following year.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1988

Each of the 858 municipal courts operating in Texas cities during the year ending August 31, 1988, was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Texas Judicial Council on activity in the court. Statewide, the Council received 7,862 reports out of a possible 10,212 for the year (77 percent).

Traffic Cases Dominate Dockets

Traffic cases comprised 90 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. A total of 6,004,675 traffic cases were filed in these courts during the year. Non-traffic criminal cases accounted for the other 10 percent of the cases filed.

Of the traffic cases filed, 70 percent were for non-parking violations with the remaining 30 percent for parking-related offenses. Eighty percent of non-traffic cases filed were for state law violations with 20 percent related to local ordinances.

In the municipal judges' capacity as a state magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 42,057 complaints within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). A total of 225 examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held, and 115 inquests were conducted by municipal judges. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 9,512. There were 6,397 search warrants issued, 878,318 arrest warrants issued, and 114,195 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings. In addition, 721 emergency mental commitment hearings were held and 8,303 matters relating to juveniles were conducted.

Municipal courts reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial, including dismissals (other than those dismissed after completing a defensive driving course), and at trial. Seventy-five percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 13 percent at trial (after appearance before the judge) and 12 percent were defensive driving dismissals following completion of deferred disposition, or dismissals following proof of financial responsibility.

Looking at traffic cases only, 26 percent were dismissed (either prior to trial or after trial) and 12.5 percent went to trial. Of the 12.5 percent that went to trial, more than 99.5 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the rest before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 92 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 64 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

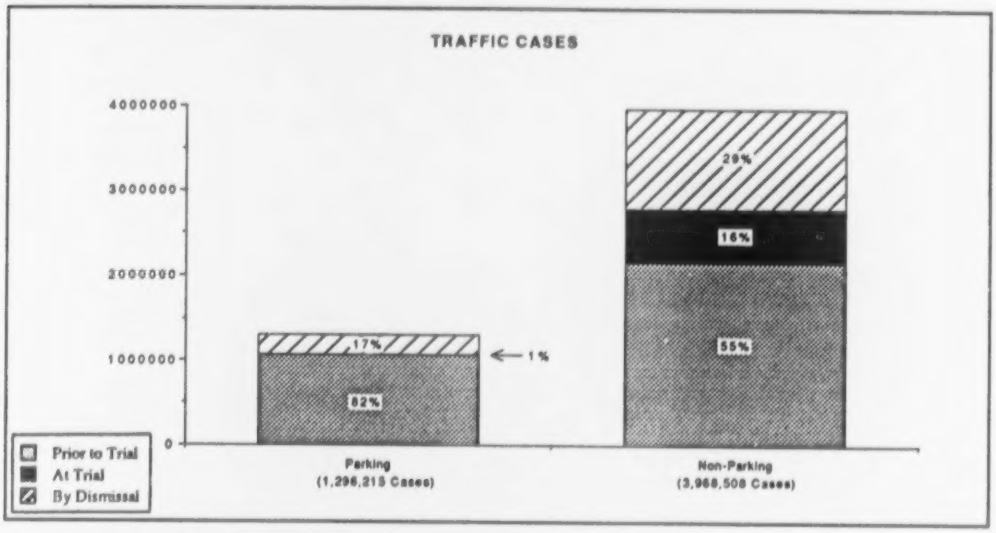
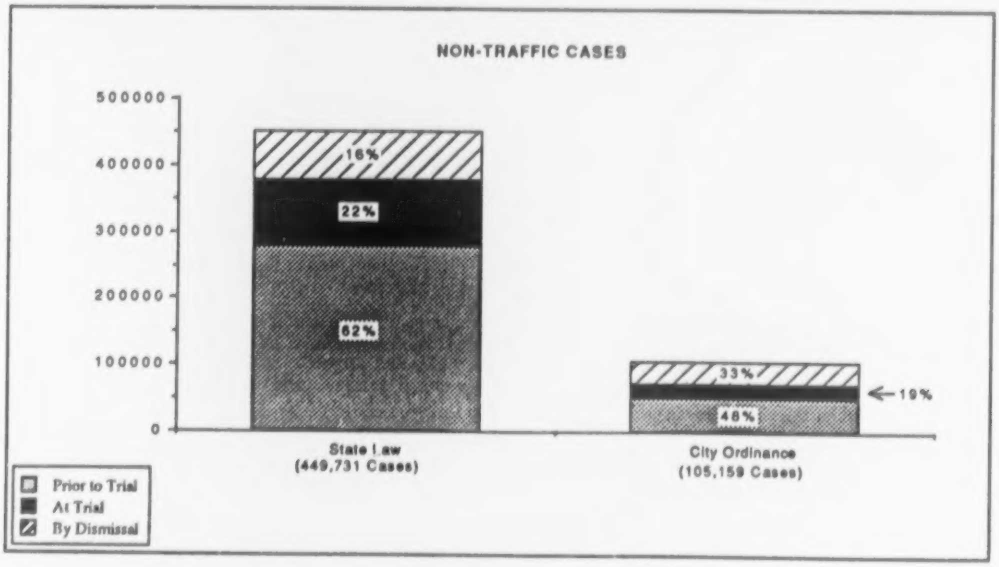
Types of dispositions of cases, year ending August 31, 1988





Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 59 percent were disposed of prior to trial by payment of fine or forfeiture of a deposit made to insure appearance, 22 percent were disposed of at trial, and 19 percent were dismissed. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 91 percent of the trials before the judge alone and in 62 percent of the jury trials.

The courts reported disposing of 5,819,613 cases, which is 88 percent of the 6,640,158 filed. In the previous year, 79 percent were disposed. Of the convictions, 72,098 cases were appealed from the municipal courts, a little more than 1.2 percent of the total cases disposed.

Reported Revenues Top $160 Million

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during the year ending August 31, 1988, was $175,213,121, 9.3 percent more than during the previous year. This revenue becomes a part of the treasury of the city in which the court has jurisdiction except for certain court costs on each case which are remitted to the special funds of the State.

MUNICIPAL COURTS
Explanation of Case Categories

1. Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all class C misdemeanor violations of the traffic laws of Texas and other violations of laws relating to the operation or ownership of a motor vehicle. Maximum punishment is by fine only, not to exceed $200.

Non-Parking includes all those violations which do not involve offenses for improper parking (for example, Speeding, Stop Sign, Red Light, Registration, etc.).

Parking includes those offenses, by state law or city ordinance, which involve the improper standing of a vehicle (for example, Parking on Highway Right of Way, Within an Intersection, Overparking, etc.).

2. Non-Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all other class C misdemeanor criminal violations.

State Law violations are those usually found in the Penal Code of Texas and associated state laws (for example, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, Assault, Theft under $20, Parks and Wildlife Violations, etc.). Maximum punishment is by fine only, not to exceed $200.

City Ordinance violations are those non-traffic offenses found in the ordinances of the city (for example, Dog Running at Large, Plumbing Code Violation, etc.). Ordinance violations involving litter, fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation, are punishable by fines only, up to a maximum of $1,000. Punishment for violation of other types of city ordinances is limited to fines only, not to exceed $200.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilites in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

It is important to note that reported totals for justice of the peace and municipal courts do not reflect 100% of the activity of those courts, as not all of these courts have submitted reports on the activity of their courts to this office.

One final caution: Because of the large number of courts in Texas and the huge volume of court activity, reporting errors are bound to occur. The staff of the Texas Judicial Council and the clerks of the court work closely to keep such reporting errors to a minimum. When errors are found after publication of an Annual Report, adjustments are made in pending case figures at the beginning of the following year.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION CENTERS

Summary of Reported Activity for January 1, 1988 through August 31, 1988

[Reports were submitted by Centers beginning January 1, 1988]

The Alternative Dispute Resolution Centers of Texas were reauthorized and expanded in scope in 1987 by the 70th Legislature "to encourage the peaceable resolution of disputes, with special consideration given to disputes invoving the parent-child relationship,. . . and the early settlement of pending litigation through voluntary settlement procedures." (Acts 1987, 70th Leg., ch. 1121, section 1.) ADRCs provide an opportuity to resolve conflicts creatively and effectively outside of the courtroom using a variety of mechanisms including mediation, arbitration, negotiation, and moderated settlement conferences.

Fiscal year 1988 is the first year the work of the Dispute Resolution Centers in Texas has been included in the Annual Report of the Texas Judicial System. The reporting procedures for the ADRCs were developed in early 1988 and thus the period covered includes only January through August of 1988. Subsequent reporting years will be based upon the entire state fiscal year.

Of the ten centers in operation in the state, nine submitted reports for the period of January 1, 1988 to August 31, 1988. The Beaumont Center became operational in March 1988, the El Paso Center became operational in July 1988 and the Lewisville Center submitted no reports. Of the activity reported, 15,664 cases were received during the reporting period, 13,237 were closed, and 3,774 cases were pending at the end of the reporting period.

Explanation of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per indictment or information. For example, if an indictment names more than one defendant, there is more than one case; three defendants named in one indictment equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one indictment, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four indictments equals four cases.

Finally, if an indictment contains more than one count (Art. 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the indictment is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

1. CAPITAL MURDER: An offense under Penal Code Section 19.03 (Captial Murder).

2. MURDER OR VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER: An offense under Penal Code Sections 19.02 (Murder) or 19.04 (Voluntary Manslaughter).

3. ASSAULT OR ATTEMPTED MURDER: A felony offense under Penal Code Section 22.01 (Assault) or 22.04 (Injury to a Child or Elder); an offense under Section 22.02 (Aggravated Assault) or 22.03 (Deadly Assault on a Peace Officer); or an offense of attempt (as defined in Section 15.01) to commit: Murder (19.02), Captial Murder (19.03), or Voluntary Manslaughter (19.04).

4. SEXUAL ASSAULT OF AN ADULT: An offense under Penal Code Sections 22.011 (Sexual Assault) or 22.021 (Aggravated Sexual Assault) where the victim is an adult (17 years or older); and any offense, where the victim is an adult, under old Penal Code Sections 21.02 (Rape), 21.03 (Aggravated Rape), 21.04 (Sexual Abuse), and 21.05 (Aggravated Sexual Abuse).

5. INDECENCY OR SEXUAL ASSAULT OF A CHILD: An offense under Penal Code Sections 22.011 (Sexual Assault) or 22.201 (Aggravated Sexual Assault) where the victim is a child (younger than 17 years), and an offense under 21.11 (Indecency with a Child); and an offense under old Penal Code Sections 21.09 (Rape of a Child), or, if the victim is younger than 17 years, an offense under old Section 21.05 (Aggravated Sexual Abuse).

6. ROBBERY: An offense under Penal Code Sections 29.02 (Robbery) or 29.03 (Aggravated Robbery).

7. BURGLARY: A felony offense under Penal Code Sections 30.02 (Burglary) or 30.04 (Burglary of Vehicles).

8. THEFT: A felony offense under Penal Code Sections 31.03 (Theft) or 31.04 (Theft of Service) except when the property involved is a motor vehicle; and an offense under Penal Code Sections 32.31 (Credit Card Abuse) and 32.50 (Debit Card Abuse).

9. AUTOMOBILE THEFT: A felony offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) if the property involved is a motor vehicle, or an offense under Section 31.07 (Unauthorized Use of a Vehicle).

10. ARSON: An offense under Penal Code Section 28.02 (Arson).

11. DRUG SALE OR MANUFACTURE: A felony offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Art. 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drugs Act (Art. 4476-14) for the manufacture, delivery or sale, or possession with intent to deliver or sell a drug or controlled substance.

12. DRUG POSSESSION: A felony offense for possession under the controlled substances Act (Art. 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drugs Act (Art. 4476-14), other than possession with intent to deliver or sell.

13. FELONY D.W.I.: A felony offense under Art. 6701L-1, V.T.C.S.

14. OTHER FELONY: A felony offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories, including cases previously categorized as forgery.

15. ALL MISDEMEANORS: Any offense classified as a misdemeanor.

8. DIVORCE CASES: A suit brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under All Other Family Matters.)

9. ALL OTHER FAMILY MATTERS: Includes all family law matters other than divorce proceedings and those juvenile matters which are reported in the Juvenile Section, including:

a. Motions to modify previously granted divorce decrees, or other judgments or decrees, in such matters as amount of child support, child custody orders, and other similar motions which are filed under the original cause number;
b. Annulments;
c. Adoptions;
d. Changes of name;
e. Termination of parental rights (child protective service cases);

Explanation of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per information. For example, if an information names more than one defendant, there is more than one case: three defendants named in one information equal three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one information, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four informations equals four cases.

Finally, if an information contains more than one count (Art. 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the information is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

Also included are appeals of cases brought under Penal Code Section 32.41—Issuance of Bad Checks.

b. "Presiding Judge" means the presiding judge of an administrative region.

c. "Administrative region" means an administrative judicial region created by Section 74.042 of the Texas Government Code.

d. "Statutory county court" means a court created by the legislature under Article V, Section 1, of the Texas Constitution, including county courts at law, county criminal courts, county criminal courts of appeals, and county civil courts at law, but not including statutory probate courts as defined by Section 3(ii) of the Texas Probate Code.

Rule 3. Council of Presiding Judges

a. There is hereby created the Council of Presiding Judges, composed of the Chief Justice as chairman and the nine presiding judges of the administrative regions.

b. The Chief Justice shall call and preside over an annual meeting of the Council on a date and at a time and place in the State designated by the Chief Justice.

c. The Chief Justice may call and convene additional meetings of the Council that he considers necessary for the promotion of the orderly and efficient administration of justice.

d. At the will of the Chief Justice, the Council may choose one of its members to serve as chairman, who will serve for a period of two years.

e. At the meetings, the Council shall:

(1) study the condition of the dockets of the courts of the State to determine the existence of:

(a) a significant increase in the number of new cases filed;

(b) a disposition rate below the state average;

(c) fewer cases disposed of than new cases filed;

(d) an excessive number of cases pending on the docket for a lengthy period of time;

(e) a large number of inactive tax cases, non-arrest criminal cases, cases held pending action in other courts or other cases which are not ready for disposition;

(4) promote more effective administration of justice through the use of Chapter 74 of the Texas Government Code.

f. The Office of Court Administration shall provide the necessary staff support for the operation of the Council and at the direction of the Chief Justice shall provide the Council with information concerning the operation of the courts of this State.

Rule 4. Council of Judges

a. There is hereby created in each of the administrative regions a Council of Judges, composed of the Presiding Judges as Chairman, judges of the district courts and statutory county courts within the regions, senior judges, and former district and statutory county court judges residing in the region who have qualified to serve as judicial officers under the provisions of Section 74.055 of the Texas Government Code.

b. The Presiding Judge shall call at least two meetings each year of the Council of Judges of the administrative regions at a time and place designated by the Presiding Judge.

c. One of the meetings shall be held within the administrative region for consultation and counseling on the state of the dockets and the civil and criminal business in the district and statutory county courts of the administrative region and arranging for the disposition of the cases and other business pending on the court dockets. At the meeting, the Council shall study and act upon the matters listed in Rule 3.e. and such other matters as may be presented to the meeting by the judges in attendance.

d. The Council of Judges shall adopt rules for the administration of the affairs of the district and statutory county courts within the administrative region, including, but not limited to, rules for:

(1) management of the business, administration and non-judicial affairs of the courts;

Rule 9. Local Administrative Judges

a. In any county in which there are two or more district or statutory county courts, the judges thereof shall choose one of the district judges as the local administrative judge, and in addition, in counties where the courts have divisions based on the types of cases generally heard, the judges of each division may choose one of their number as the administrative judge of that division. If a local administrative judge is not so chosen, the Presiding Judge of the administrative region shall designate one of the district judges of the county as the local administrative judge. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing, and should observe high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary is preserved. The provisions of this Code shall be construed and applied to further that objective.

CANON 2

A Judge Should Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in All Activities

A. A judge should respect and comply with the law and should conduct himself or herself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

B. A judge should not allow family, social, or other relationships to influence his or her judicial conduct or judgment. A judge should not lend the prestige of his or her office to advance the private interests of himself or herself or others; nor should he or she convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him or her. A judge should not testify voluntarily in an adjudicative proceeding as a character witness.

CANON 3

A Judge Should Perform the Duties of Office Impartially and Diligently

The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all other activities. Judicial duties include all the duties of office prescribed by law. In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply:

A. Adjudicative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. A judge should be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

(2) A judge should maintain order and decorum in proceedings before him or her.

(3) A judge should be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, and others with whom he or she deals in his or her official capacity, and should require similar conduct of lawyers, and of the staff, court officials, and others subject to the judge's direction and control.

(4) A judge shall accord to every person who is legally interested in a proceeding, or his or her lawyer, full right to be heard according to law.

(5) A judge, except as authorized by law, shall not directly or indirectly initiate, permit, nor consider ex parte or other communications concerning the merits of a pending or impending judicial proceeding. This subsection does not prohibit communications concerning uncontested administrative or uncontested procedural matters. A judge shall require compliance with this subsection by court personnel subject to his or her direction and control.

(6) The discussions, votes, positions taken, and writings of judges and court personnel about causes are confidences of the court and shall not be revealed at any time, except by the court's judgment and written opinion.

(7) A judge should dispose promptly of the business of the court.

(8) A judge shall abstain from public comment about a pending or impending proceeding in any court, and shall require similar abstention on the part of court personnel subject to his or her direction and control. This subsection does not prohibit judges from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the court.

(9) A judge should prohibit broadcasting, televising, recording, or taking photographs in the courtroom and areas immediately adjacent thereto during sessions of court or recesses between sessions (Estes vs. Texas, 381 U.S. 532; Shepard vs. Maxwell, 384 U.S. 333), except that a judge may authorize:

(a) the use of electronic or photographic means for the presentation of evidence, for the perpetuation of a record, or for other purposes of judicial administration;

(b) the broadcasting, televising, recording, or photographing of investitive, or ceremonial proceedings;

(c) the photographic or electronic recording and reproduction of appropriate court proceedings under the following conditions:

(i) the means of recording will not distract participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings;

(ii) the parties have consented, and the consent to being depicted or recorded has been obtained from each witness appearing in the recording and reproduction;

(iii) the reproduction will not be exhibited until after the proceeding has been concluded and all direct appeals have been exhausted; and

(iv) the reproduction will be exhibited only for instructional purposes.

(d) Oral arguments by the parties in the appellate courts may be aurally recorded upon the prior consent obtained from the court, or the chief justice or presiding judge as the case may be, where the means of recording will not distract the participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings.

B. Administrative Responsibilities

(1) A judge should diligently discharge all administrative responsibilities, maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and facilitate the performance of the administrative responsibilities of other judges and court officials.

(2) A judge should require his or her staff and court officials subject to the judge's direction and control to observe the standards of this Code.

(3) A judge should take or initiate appropriate disciplinary measures against a lawyer for unprofessional conduct of which the judge may become aware.

(4) A judge shall not make unnecessary appointments. A judge shall exercise his or her power of appointment only on the basis of merit, avoiding nepotism and favoritism. A judge shall not approve compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.

C. Personal Affairs - Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should be informed about his or her personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to be informed about the personal financial interests of his or her spouse and minor children residing in his or her household.

(2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(b) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, advisor, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) an office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a 'financial interest' in securities held by the organization;

(iii) the proprietary interest of a policy holder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest; and

(iv) ownership of government securities is a "financial interest" in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

CANON 4

A Judge May Engage in Activities to Improve the Law, the Legal System, and the Administration of Justice

A judge, subject to the proper performance of judicial duties, may engage in the following quasi-judicial activities, if in doing so the judge does not cast doubt on his or her capacity to decide impartially any issue that may come before the court:

A. A judge may speak, write, lecture, teach, and participate in other activities concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

B. A judge may appear at a public hearing before an executive or legislative body or official on matters concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, and a judge may otherwise consult with an executive or legislative body or official, but only on matters concerning the administration of justice.

C. A judge may serve as a member, officer, or director of an organization or governmental agency devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. A judge may assist such an organization in raising funds and may participate in their management and investment, but should not personally participate in public fund raising activities. He or she may make recommendations to public and private fund-granting agencies on projects and programs concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

CANON 5

A Judge Should Regulate Extra-Judicial Activities to Minimize the Risk of Conflict with Judicial Duties

A. Avocational Activities

A judge may write, lecture, teach, and speak on nonlegal subjects, and engage in the arts, sports, and other social and recreational activities, if such avocational activities do not detract from the dignity of his or her office or interfere with the performance of judicial duties. A judge may write, lecture, teach, and speak on legal subjects as well, as long as such participation does not involve the giving of legal advice, nor detract from his or her office.

B. Civic and Charitable Activities

A judge may participate in civic and charitable activities that do not reflect adversely upon his or her impartiality or interfere with the performance of his or her judicial duties. A judge may serve as an officer, director, trustee, or non-legal advisor of an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization not conducted for the economic or political advantage of its members, subject to the following limitations:

(1) A judge should not serve if it is likely that the organization will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or her or will be regularly or frequently engaged in adversary proceedings in any court.

(2) A judge should not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his or her office for that purpose, but may be listed as an officer, director, delegate, or trustee of such an organization.

A judge should not be a speaker or the guest of honor at an organization's fund raising events, but may attend such events.

(3) A judge should not give investment advice to such an organization, but may serve on its board of directors or trustees even though it has the responsibility for approving investment decisions.

C. Financial Activities.

(1) A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on his or her impartiality, interfere with the proper performance of the judicial duties, exploit his or her judicial position, or involve the judge in frequent transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the court on which he or she serves.

(2) Subject to the requirements of subsection (1), a judge may hold and manage investments, including real estate, and engage in other remunerative activity including the operation of a business. A judge should not be an officer, director, or manager of a publicly owned business. For purposes of this Canon, a "publicly owned business" is a business having more than ten owners who are not related to the judge by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree.

(3) A judge should manage his or her investments and other financial interests to minimize the number of cases in which he or she is disqualified. As soon as the judge can do so without serious financial detriment, he or she should divest himself or herself of investments and other financial interests that might require frequent disqualification.

(4) Neither a judge nor a member of his or her family residing in his or her household should accept a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from anyone except as follows:

(a) a judge may accept a gift incident to a public testimonial to him or her; books supplied by publishers on a complimentary basis for official use; or an invitation to the judge and spouse to attend a bar-related function or activity devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice;

(b) a judge or member of his or her family residing in the household may accept ordinary social hospitality; a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from a relative; a wedding or engagement gift; a loan from a lending institution in its regular course of business on the same terms generally available to persons who are not judges; or a scholarship or fellowship awarded on the same terms applied to other applicants;

(c) a judge or member of his or her family residing in the household may accept any other gift, bequest, favor, or loan only if the donor is not a party or person whose interests have come or are likely to come before the judge.

(5) For the purposes of this section "member of his or her family residing in the household" means any relative of a judge by blood or marriage, or a person treated by a judge as a member of his or her family, who resides in the household.

(6) Information acquired by a judge in his or her judicial capacity should not be used or disclosed by the judge in financial dealings or for any other purpose not related to his or her judicial duties.

D. Fiduciary Activities.

A judge should not serve as the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary, except for the estate, trust, or person of a member of his or her own family; and then only if such service will not interfere with the proper performance of judicial duties. "Member of his or her family" includes a spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, or other relative or person with whom the judge maintains a close familial relationship. As a family fiduciary a judge is subject to the following restrictions:

(1) A judge should not serve if it is likely that as a fiduciary he or she will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before the judge, or if the estate, trust, or ward becomes involved in adversary proceedings in the court on which he or she serves or one under its appellate jurisdiction.

(2) While acting as a fiduciary a judge is subject to the same restrictions on financial activities that apply to the judge in his or her personal capacity.

E. Arbitration.

A judge should not act as an arbitrator or mediator.

F. Practice of Law.

A judge should not practice law except as permitted by statute or this Code.

G. Extra-Judicial Appointments.

A judge should not accept appointment to a governmental committee, commission, or other position that is concerned with issues of fact or policy on matters other than the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. A judge, however, may represent his or her country, state, or locality on ceremonial occasions or in connection with historical, educational and cultural activities.

CANON 6

A Judge Should Regularly File Reports of Compensation Received for Quasi-Judicial and Extra-Judicial Activities

A judge may receive compensation and reimbursements of expenses for the quasi-judicial and extra-judicial activities permitted by this Code, if the source of such payments does not give the appearance of influencing the judge in his or her judicial duties or otherwise give the appearance of impropriety, subject to the following restrictions:

A. Compensation.

Compensation should not exceed a reasonable amount nor should it exceed what a person who is not a judge would receive for the same activity.

B. Expense Reimbursement.

Expense reimbursement should be limited to the actual cost of travel, food, and lodging reasonably incurred by the judge and, where appropriate to the occasion, by his or her family. Any payment in excess of such an amount is compensation.

C. Financial Reports.

A judge should file financial and other reports as required by law.

CANON 7

A Judge Shall Refrain from Political Activity Inappropriate to the Judiciary

(1) Any candidate for elective judicial office, including an incumbent judge, and others acting on the candidate's behalf, shall refrain from all conduct which would violate the Election Code and/or this Code.

(2) A candidate is prohibited from statements or conduct which, by their nature, indicates an opinion which may be subject to federal or state judicial interpretation.

(3) A candidate shall not make pledges or promises of conduct in office other than the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of the office. Any statement of qualification, record, or performance in office should be such as can withstand the closest scrutiny as to accuracy, candor and fairness.
